

COMMUNITY HOUSE CALENDAR

WEEK OF MAY 29, 1922.

The classes in English for foreign men and women have closed for the season after completing a year of helpfulness and achievement, under the able leadership of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Moulton, assisted by Mrs. John Fletcher, Mrs. J. B. Riddle, Miss Ellen Montgomery, Miss Ruth Matz, Miss von Hofsten, and Mr. Charles T. Moon. This work will be resumed next October.

There will be no more meetings of "Friendship Circle" in Community House until next fall. Mrs. Ralph Snyder has led this group, assisted by Miss Betty Bacon. More than seventy girls are registered, and they have had a happy, friendly time together, during the winter, and are making plans for next year so as to reach even a larger group of girls who are strangers in Winnetka, and who would enjoy their good times in Community House.

Young people's doings begin and end this week—starting with a Young People's Entertainment in the gym, on Monday night, and ending with a Camp Fire Luncheon to their mothers by the Helothi group of Camp Fire Girls.

Social Happenings

Mr. M. Tool from U. S. S. Blackhawk, Brooklyn Navy Yard, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lathrope, 826 Humboldt avenue. Mr. Tool leaves shortly to visit his parents at Roachdale, Ind. The S. S. Blackhawk leaves in August for China, for a two years' cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Lines, 746 Foxdale avenue, who motored down to Louisville, Ky., for the derby, and then on through the Blue Grass, with Mrs. Lines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jacques, returned home last Sunday.

Mrs. George W. Gordon, 847 North avenue, will return home June 1, after a several months' visit in the south. She will only be here long enough to prepare the family for departure to their summer home in Michigan.

Numerous dinner parties are being arranged for the formal opening of the season at Indian Hill club next Tuesday evening. Miss Augusta Fenger will be among those who will entertain.

Miss Edith Weinstock of Marietta, O., is visiting at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Weinstock, 892 Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bunker, 656 Lincoln avenue, leave June 1st for their summer home at Grass Lake, Mich. They expect to be gone four months.

Mr. Clarence Krause, 824 Humboldt avenue, and her guests, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Laurie and Dorothy Laurie, have returned from a ten day visit in Streeter, Ill.

Mrs. Emory Wilder, 1168 Asbury avenue, entertained Tuesday afternoon for Miss Lois Wilder, whose marriage to Robert N. Landreth will take place this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Cain of Hawthorne lane, are motoring down to Ritchie, Ill., today, to spend the week-end and Decoration with friends at their summer home on the Kankakee river.

Wednesday, May 17, was Bundle Day at all the schools for the Near East Relief. All the committees were very active and made the day one of success to their worthy cause.

Viola Dana Attraction in Community Pictures

In "Glass Houses," her latest production, which is to be shown at Community House next Friday, June 2nd., Viola Dana has to portray the role of Joy Duval, who, on her wedding day, finds that her husband, Billy Norton, believes her to be a notorious crook. He tries to persuade her to give up her life of crime, but she thinks that he has gone mad and tries to soothe him.

They are to be guests at a ball in the Hotel Kenilworth, but Billy, still believing that his wife is the notorious Angel Face Ann, sees a picture of Swag Sullivan, the con woman's husband, who is in prison. Billy goes to him and there learns that Angel Face Ann has planned a big killing at the ball. Billy rushes to the hotel and upon finding Joy insists on saving her from the police. While she is trying to get him home so that she can have him examined as to his mental condition, the real Angel Face Ann comes upon the scene.

Viola Dana enacts the principal role in this, her gayest comedy of adventure and hilarious complications.

Miss Alice de Windt, accompanied by her father, Mr. H. A. de Windt, who went east this week to meet her, arrived home yesterday, from Rome, where she has been attending school this past year.

Mrs. Charles E. Lundquist and her son, Mr. Russell Lundquist, 780 Hawthorn lane, returned Wednesday from a two weeks' vacation in Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parbs, 979 Elm street, have as their guests, this week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sutton of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Robert Kingery, 809 Pine st., with her three children, Jean, Kenneth and the baby, left Sunday for New York for a two or three weeks' visit with relatives.

Miss Marion Lasier held a piano recital at her home, 721 Lincoln ave., on Saturday last. A delightful program was rendered by her pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kiefer, 1301 Asbury avenue, are leaving Monday for an extended trip abroad, visiting in Germany, France and Italy. They expect to return home early in November.

Dr. and Mrs. Delbert W. Poff and their small daughter of 562 Hawthorne lane, are leaving today for a motor trip to Peoria, Ill., where they will remain over Decoration Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gonsalves and family, 635 Rosewood avenue, left yesterday to spend the week-end and Decoration Day in Centralia, Ill.

Miss Augusta Fenger will entertain at the opening dinner dance at Indian Hill club on Decoration Day evening.

Mrs. Martha Rexroat of Maywood, was the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Jr., last week.

Mrs. Laura K. Slocum of Cleveland, O., is making a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Weil, 1040 Pine street.

Mrs. Harold Ickes returned Friday to her home in Hubbard Woods, from Springfield, Ill.

Miss Hazel Lathrope, 826 Humboldt avenue, left Thursday to visit friends in Roachdale, Ind.

Wild Nags Throw an Ice Wagon 'Gin Phone Pole

Householders in the vicinity of Lincoln and Humboldt avenues were afforded a genuine thrill Saturday morning when a team of horses attached to a North Shore Ice company wagon became frightened and bolted headlong north in Lincoln avenue.

Swinging into Humboldt avenue the steeds crashed into a telegraph pole, snapping it off like a match stick. The pole fell across the wagon.

No, there was no casualty list. The driver was delivering a cake of ice at the time.

NOTICE

I have had so many requests for just a taste of what numerous ones in the community have termed my delicious pies and cakes, that I have decided to bake a limited number of each per day and will accept orders given a day in advance for delivering the following day, upon request. Selma L. Weil, 1040 Pine St. Tel. Winn. 752. T11-1tc
