

RECEIVE REGISTRANTS FOR SUMMER CLASSES

Grade Summer School to be Held at Horace Mann

Summer school sessions will be held again this year in the Horace Mann school and will start on June 26. Registration must be made not later than June 15.

The term will continue four weeks. There will be three divisions, namely: lower class under Miss Elizabeth Vernon, of Greeley school; middle class under Miss Ruth Ostmund, of the Horace Mann school; upper division under Miss Georgia Pearson, of Skokie school, and Miss Wilda Bays, of the Horace Mann school.

Tuition for the summer term will be $6. All regular courses will be offered, but such courses as shop and general science will not be given unless the demand is sufficiently great to warrant the retention of additional instructors.

HINT! AS SMALL BOYS WE SET THE TRAP

Despite up-to-date schools and homes, automobiles, fire engines, policemen and other modern conveniences it seems that it is not quite correct to say that Winnetka is wholly civilized.

Mrs. W. G. Wollfolk, 615 Cherry street, reports to the police that wild rabbits with appetites like airedale dogs are invading her vegetable garden, carrying off heads of lettuce and bunches of beets.

Wild rabbits, or not, it is against the law for a citizen to discharge a firearm within the village limits and some other method of eliminating the marauders away will have to be found, say the police.

WOULD CURB DANGER
R. H. Hobart, 660 Prospect avenue, recently asked the police to station a patrolman at the curve near his home. Automobiles turning the corner at high speed are endangering lives and property, according to Hobart, and several near-accidents have occurred in front of the home.

CADILLAC

Fashions change, fads come and go, but perfection evolves. Thus the constant improvements effected by the Cadillac organization over a period of nineteen years have created for Cadillac the unwavering allegiance of more than a hundred thousand owners.
