

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

DeWindt-Gardner Nuptials Will Occur June 10

MISS ALICE DE WINDT, who has just returned from a winter in Rome, will attend her sister, Miss Caroline de Windt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt, as maid of honor, on the occasion of her marriage to Mr. Albert Settner Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gardner of New York, next Saturday afternoon, June 10. Rev. James Austin Richards will read the service. The bridesmaids will include Miss Mary Dozier Gardner of New York, sister of the groom, Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry, Mrs. Hallet Thorne, Mrs. Robert H. Gardner, Miss Sarah Bennet and Miss Dorothy Buttolph, and there will be two little flower girls, the Misses Ruth and Mary de Windt, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Delano de Windt of Great Barrington, Mass.

Robert H. Gardner, will serve his brother as best man, and there will be the following ushers, Messrs. Delano de Windt of Great Barrington, Mass., the bride's brother, William K. Gardner, of St. Louis, a cousin of the groom, Hibbard Casselberry, Hallet Thorne, Jack Finlay, A. Peter Van Brunt, Knowlton Ames, Jr., and Robert McCormick Adams.

Numerous pre-nuptial affairs have been arranged for the coming week, in honor of Miss de Windt. Yesterday afternoon, Miss Norvel Allen entertained with a luncheon and bridge at the Skokie Country club, and last evening Miss Mary Harding was hostess at a dinner party at her home, 4853 Lake Park avenue, Chicago. Today Miss Elizabeth Corey is giving a luncheon and bridge at the Indian Hill club in Miss de Windt's honor, and this evening a dinner-dance is being given at the Evanston Golf club by Miss Sarah Bennet.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry will entertain with a Sport Supper at Wildacre. Another Sport party has been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Hallet Thorne of 2344 Lincoln Park West, Chicago, for Monday evening, and on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Warren Pease, jr., and Mrs. William E. Clarke, have issued invitations for a tea to be given at the formers' home, 722 Seward avenue, Evanston. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thorne will give a Sport Supper at their home in Lake Forest. Wednesday afternoon Miss Dorothy Buttolph will entertain at luncheon at the South Shore Country club, followed by a matinee party, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Morris R. Glaser will give a dinner-dance at Rosemoor Lodge in Glencoe. Miss Beatrice Fenton will entertain at luncheon on Thursday next at the Indian Hill club.

Miss Lenore Adah McCall, daughter of Joseph B. McCall, became the bride of Norman Hilliard MacLeish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of Craigie Lea, Glencoe, on Thursday at the Church of the Saviour in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Joseph B. McCall, jr., served as matron of honor; Miss Mary Merrick Williams attended the bride as maid of honor and the other attendants included Mrs. Gilbert Mather, Mrs. Arthur E. Pew, jr., Miss Martha D. Baker, Miss Eleanor P. Davis, Miss Rhoda Morris Brooks, and Miss Isabel MacLeish, sister of the groom. Archibald MacLeish served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Edward Converse of Hartford, Conn., Dr. Edward Randall, jr., of Galveston, Tex., Alexander B. Heyburn, Louisville, Ky., and Joseph B. McCall, jr., George Wharton Pepper, jr., Edmund R. Jurves, Samuel Wagner, jr., Tristram Colket, Doland Baird and Harold Webber of Philadelphia.

The wedding took place at four o'clock at the Church of the Saviour. This church contains a memorial altar dedicated to the memory of the bride's brother, Howard McCall, who was killed in the service.

The bride wore a gown of white satin made simply, with a veil of rose point lace extending the length of the train. She carried lilies of the valley and orchids. The matron of honor and maid of honor wore hydrangea blue batiste frocks over pale pink taffeta and pink hats trimmed with blue flowers. They carried spring flowers to match.

The Mac Dowell Musical club entertained their husbands and friends at a guest evening on Tuesday, May 23. Mrs. Clifford Ewart of 744 Ash street, opened her home for the occasion. A delightful program was given by members of the club and Mr. Edward Collins, pianist-composer of Chicago. Mr. Collins gave a group containing numbers by Chopin and Liszt and several of his own compositions. He was enthusiastically received and responded to two encores. Following is the program:

Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Some twenty-five youngsters revelled in their first Garden Party of the season on last Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. C. H. Dodd of 127 Bertling lane, entertained informally for her small daughter, Mary Frances, the occasion being her sixth birthday anniversary. The Dodds had constructed a May Pole in one corner of their grounds, and the children had great fun dancing the May Pole dance. Games of all sorts, races, and the proverbial fishing pond, where one fished out some sort of a pack age, provided additional entertainment for the guests. Another interesting feature was the serving of the refreshments in individual picnic baskets. Those who attended were Katherine Wilcox, Marjorie Tubbs, Ruth Koontz, Marjorie Stilling, Lucia Perigo, James, Evelyn and Harriet Hancock, Carlon Davis, Betty Maddox, Davis Jennings, Mary Jane Stevenson, Mary Nash, Cleo Gedge, Phyllis Cav. Bert Salkenberger, Genevieve Tubbs, Payton and Katherine King of Winnetka, and Betty Grades, Jane Martin, Jane Davis, Virginia Van Landingham, Franklyn Edwards and Richard Swank of Rogers Park.

The kindergarten department of the Sunday school of the Congregational church will hold its annual summer party on the Community House lawn, Monday afternoon, June 5, beginning at 3 o'clock.

All of the children of the department are cordially invited. The committee in charge of the affair includes Miss Mildred Mack, Mrs. William D. Truesdale, Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Theodore Coyne.

The New Trier Circle will hold its final meeting of the season on Tuesday, June 6, in the home of Mrs. Ralph Johansen, 863 Vernon avenue, Glencoe. The sewing is to be put aside on this occasion, in order that this may be a real social get-together. Members who are able to attend are asked to meet at the Indian Hill station promptly at two o'clock. Mrs. Haymen Raclin will be the assisting hostess.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. Isabel G. Moody, 921 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, on Monday, June 5, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. T. Bradner Smith of Evanston will speak on "Child Welfare." Mrs. J. C. Drake of Wilmette, local superintendent of this department of work, will be in charge of the program.

The Winnetka Camp, Number 3076, of the Royal Neighbors will give a bunco party and dance at Community House next Wednesday evening, June 7. The proceeds will be devoted to the Community House fund. Tickets may be obtained through Mrs. C. Homan, 567 Provident avenue, or any other member of the Neighbors, or at the door.
