

"WHY ANNOUNCE YOUR MARRIAGE?"

Elaine Hammerstein scores a decided hit by her snappy, virile work in "Why Announce Your Marriage?" which is to be shown at the Community House next Friday evening. The film possesses the refreshing merit of originality, it is altogether out of the beaten track, suspense is developed and maintained to a degree unusual in comedy stuff. It is best described as a lively, rollicking farce comedy, brimful of humor, well directed and a sure fire laugh-producer.

HARDING BOOSTS GIRLS' ANNUAL FROLIC TODAY

Camp Fire Headquarters, New York, has just received the following message of congratulations to Camp Fire Girls, on the approach of National "Festival Week" which will be celebrated by Camp Fire groups not only in the United States, but in Peru, Porto Rico, Manila, and Juneau, Alaska:

"My dear Mrs. Harriman:

Mrs. Harding and myself join in extending greetings and sincerest wishes to the Camp Fire Girls on the occasion of their annual festival week. Both of us have been deeply interested in the possibilities of this excellent organization, which we hope may be continued on a constantly expanding scale of usefulness.

Very Sincerely,
(Signed) Warren G. Harding."

Five years ago, the Camp Fire Girls inaugurated the idea of a girls' festival, one day of the year when all girls of all ages and all kinds, get out of doors and play and dance and picnic together. This year it is to be celebrated today. All over the country the Camp Fire Girls are holding these spring festivals, in which all girls, whether they be Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts or Girl Reserves, are invited to take part.

Goes to San Francisco to Attend Shriners' Session

Alva Lee Adams, proprietor of the Adams Pharmacy, left the village this week to attend the Shriners' convention in San Francisco, California. Early in the week Mr. and Mrs. Adams and their daughter Sarah Jane motored to Olney, Ill., where Mrs. Adams and the little girl will remain until Mr. Adams returns from the coast.

R. M. Johnston Company Announce Realty Transfers

O. A. Rush of Chicago, has purchased the new 6-room brick bungalow with attached garage at 1514 Wilmette avenue. R. M. Johnston and company were the brokers.

The same realtors report the sale this week of the 7-room brick house at 51 Warwick road, Kenilworth, from G. F. Ford to Kenneth J. Mears; a 50-foot lot on Foxdale avenue, Winnetka, for H. G. Woodside of Sterling, Ill.; 100 feet of vacant property on Laurel avenue, just west of Sheridan road, from J. T. Wray to T. W. Both.

Bellamy to Appear in Summer Road Theatricals

Ralph R. Bellamy, accomplished young north shore actor, is leaving June 14 with a road company, to travel during the summer theatrical season.

Mr. Bellamy will be remembered for his prominence for some time in local dramatics, but mostly for his work with the North Shore Players.

He was for a time with the William Owen company when that group played the "Servant in the House" at New Trier auditorium. He displayed unusual talent at this performance, taking the role of Manson.

Clouds Supply Needed Moisture.
During the nearly rainless summers of South Africa the mountains in the neighborhood of Cape Town are clothed in luxurious vegetation, supported by a copious deposit of moisture from drifting clouds.

Farther Than That.
A writer on "Censoring the Movies" says that "a kiss is chaste for ten feet" in Pennsylvania. "I have often sprinted much further for one," writes J. M. in Boston Transcript.

A Smart Oxford That Gives Months of Hard Service Oblingly

There are a lot of shoes that give good service, but they give it grudgingly, painfully.

The shoe pictured here is a notable exception to the rule. It never grows tired of well-doing.

It is a Red Cross Shoe—made to fit the foot in action—made to serve active feet comfortably.

This oxford costs only $7.75, others $8.00.
