Many of Winnetka's Beautiful Gardens to Open for Vassar Fund

An Afternoon of Gardens will be held under the auspices of the North Shore Vassar Club on Friday, June 23, between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock. Those who have generously consented to open their charming gardens for the benefit of the Vassar Salary Endowment Fund are Mrs. James Houghteling, Mrs. Henry P. Crowell, Mrs. Hermon B. Butler, Mrs. Merritt Starr, Mrs. John W. Scott, Mrs. Frederick H. Scott and Mrs. Robert Cluett of Winnetka, and Mrs. Andrew MacLeish and Mrs. Charles A. Stonehill of Glencoe. Vassar flags will mark the entrances to the gardens. Tickets may be obtained of Mrs. Devroe E. Getman.

The wedding of Miss Caroline de Windt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heyliger A. deWindt to Albert Sellner Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gardner of New York, took place last Saturday afternoon.

The marriage service was read at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the Congregational church. Miss Alice deWindt attended her sister as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Gardner of New York, Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry, Mrs. Robert H. Gardner, Miss Sarah Bennett, Mrs. Hallet W. Thorne and Miss Dorothy Buttolph. Mr. Robert H. Gardner was best man for his brother. The flower girls, little nieces of the bride, were the Misses Mary and Ruth deWindt, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Delano deWindt of Great Barrington, Mass.

The ushers were Mr. Delano deWindt, Mr. William K. Gardner of St. Louis, Mr. Robert McCormick Adams, Mr. A. Peter Van Brunt, Mr. Knowlton L. Ames, Jr., Mr. John J. Finlay, Mr. Hibbard Casselberry and Mr. Hallet W. Thorne.

The bridal gown was of white satin made with a panel train of net, edged with duchesse lace, worn by the bride's mother. A coronet of orange blossoms held the tulle veil in place, and the bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

The maid of honor wore a dark shade of Alice blue chiffon over gold cloth with a sash train of lighter blue moire. The bridesmaids' gowns were of a lighter shade of blue over gold cloth, with the sash train of the dark Alice blue. Leghorn hats with blue moire ribbon, and blue slipper and hosiery to match the gowns were also worn. Their bouquets included crimson cornflowers and yellow daisies. The flower girls wore frocks of white organdie with baskets of flowers embroidered in the hem, white organdie poke bonnets with French flowers and blue moire streamers. They carried garlands of roses and daisies.

A reception was held in the garden of the deWindt home, where pink and white peonies formed their own decorations.

The North Shore alumnae organizations of Goucher, Wells, Vassar and Wellesley Colleges have combined to hold a bazaar and entertainment at the Evanston Country club, for two days and evenings, the first week in November.

Mrs. George B. Dryden and Mrs. Robert S. DeGolyer, Wells and Goucher graduates respectively, have been elected joint chairmen of the group. Other members of the executive committee are Mrs. Henry S. Gilbertson, Wellesley, secretary; Mrs. Philip P. Merrill, Vassar, treasurer; Mrs. Frank C. Dakin, Wells, chairman of the committee on special features; and Mrs. Frank W. Kingsley, Wellesley, publicity. Representing the four organizations on this committee are Mrs. Scott Brown, Goucher; Miss Ruth Hypes, Wellesley; Mrs. Albert C. Koch, Wells, and Mrs. Keith Preston, Vassar.

This committee has held two meetings and definite plans for the four-college benefit will be announced soon. The alumnae association of Goucher, Vassar, Wellesley and Wells are all raising money for endowment.
