

ARDEN SHORE READY FOR FIRST CAMPERS

Women and Children of Chicago's Tenements Soon Get Annual Vacation

Arden Shore, the fresh air camp at Lake Bluff, is nearly ready for its first quota of 500 guests from Chicago's congested tenement districts. The grounds are in order, the tent man is busy repairing and putting up tents, fresh paint has brightened things here and there, and everything is being done to insure a good time for the mothers and children who will soon come trooping out for their one vacation of the year.

The camp directors, because of past happy experiences, have come to depend upon their friends along the North Shore to supply deficiencies in equipment that arise every year. Many an attic, office, or tool house has given up long unused treasures that have perfectly filled a need at Arden Shore. So the Superintendent sends the following list of articles most needed, with the hope that those who have these things and no longer use them will feel minded to give them to Arden Shore.

Lawn mower, mimeograph or duplicator, chairs of all kinds, furniture in general, clothing, bathing suits, bath towels, baby carriages, toys and books.

Any one having these or other things to give the camp please notify Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, 85 Wentworth avenue, Telephone Glencoe 186. The articles will be called for.

Haskins Funeral Services Held Here Wednesday

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Robert C. Haskins, whose death occurred Monday, June 19, in Saugatuck, Mich., at the residence at 615 Ash street.

Mr. Haskins was 64 years old. He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Rawleigh Warner, of Evanston, and five sons, Raymond G., George E., Harold O., Frank A., and Paul R. Haskins. The services were private.

Mr. Haskins was a former president of the International Harvester Company of America.

Steve, All Het Up, Goes to Big City, Gets in Hot Water

Steve Natuck, who was reputed to be the only living Eskimo in Winnetka, a former employe of the village, is gone again. Last Saturday Steve quit with the noon whistle and wandered down to the lake. It will be remembered that he spent his spare time last winter leaping from iceberg to iceberg and cooling himself in the frigid waters.

Steve sighed several times, as he saw the tepid water gently flowing. Winnetka no longer held any attraction for him. Another thing which he did not like about the village was the absence of a spacious enough public billiard hall, for he dearly loves the national Eskimo game.

So he hid himself to Chicago where pool halls abound. Two sociable gentlemen allowed him to join in the pastime and Steve was almost happy. The day grew hotter and hotter. Steven became unbearably ill at ease. Then the trouble started.

Four policemen were called to the billiard parlors to quell Steve who was engaged in annihilating his two playmates. Monday morning he was called before a judge in a Chicago police court and asked why he was so rough.

"Your honor," he said, wiping his brow, "I was so hot that I was itching all over and that always makes me want to fight."

Several months ago when Steve went to the city, he was beset by two men who almost succeeded in severing his right ear from his head. Since then he had tried to avoid catastrophes.

"You may go if you will promise to keep out of trouble," said the judge. Steve went, but he has not returned to Winnetka and is said to be working for an ice company.

Winnetka vs. Glencoe A. C. In Baseball This Sunday

Winnetka's baseball outfit meets the Glencoe A. C. squad Sunday, June 25, at the Glencoe Green Bay avenue diamond, County road and Green Bay road. Game time is 3 o'clock. The game will be a regularly scheduled North Shore Baseball league event.

Winnetka ball club officials are authority for the announcement that Winnetka is to hook up with the crack Fort Sheridan team on Tuesday, July 4, in a big holiday clash, to be called at 10:30 a. m. Another game is expected for the Fourth of July matinee.

The Misses Gertrude MacRae, Beatrice Bariholf, Ruth Eleanor Boots, Marbel Forberg and Harriet Carlsen entertained the members of the graduating class at New Trier high school at an informal dance at Skokie Country club last Monday evening.

Mrs. Lewis Vollmann, 803 Cherry street, left Saturday for a week's stay with relatives in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. Reynolds Brooks, 1183 Scott avenue, has returned from an eastern trip.

Wesley Kloefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Kloefer, started off this week for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will spend his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cole, who recently sold their home here and moved west.

The Standard of the World

The purchase of an automobile is primarily an investment in machinery.

Such an investment should be made with the same regard to the mechanical history of the car as careful investors give to the financial history of a security.
