'Jeanne d'Arc' Drama Important Event on Social Calendar

THE most important social event on the calendar this coming week is the Percy Mackaye production of "Jeanne d'Arc," at Patten gymnasium, Northwestern university, on Thursday evening, June 29. The North Shore Theatre Guild is producing the drama, which from all indications promises to be the outstanding dramatic event of the year on the north shore. One hundred persons are to be found in the production and practically all of the talent is enlisted from the north shore towns.

Following is a list of the boxholders: Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Follansbee, Mr. Herman Woldeck, Mr. Louis C. Eckstein, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Cates, Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Levering, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mr. David Goodwillie, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, Mrs. Joseph B. Long, Mr. and Mrs. George Dryden and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Eckhart.

The list of patronesses includes Mrs. Arthur Aldis, Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Mrs. Howard Shaw, Mrs. William Scriven, Mrs. Joseph B. Long, Mrs. William Pratt Judson, Mrs. Francis Neilson, Mrs. A. Starr Best, Mrs. Charles S. Dewey, Mrs. George W. Dixon, Mrs. W. E. Clark, Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, Mrs. Lyman Walton, Mrs. Frank Porter, Mrs. D. F. Kelly, Mrs. Edward F. Swift, Jr., Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe, Mrs. George Dryden, Mrs. Alanson Follansbee, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. Hathaway Watson and Mrs. H. A. deWindt.

The following young women will serve as ushers during the evening: Mesdames Walter Paepcke, Robert Gardner, Hallet Thorne, Philip Maher and the Misses Alice deWindt, Sarah Bennett, Katherine Cook, Mary Cooke, Elizabeth Copeland, Dorothy Day, Olivia Copress, Beatrice Fenton, Elizabeth Dunning, Mary Harding, Katherine Lloyd, Dorothy Klotz, Katherine Prest, Alice Voak, Virginia Miller and Rachael Foster.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Gilmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood Gilmore, to Mr. Herbert Lloyd Zipf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Zipf of 596 Arbor Vitae road, took place on Wednesday evening in St. Peter's Episcopal church. Rev. Harold L. Bowen officiated. Mrs. Ryerson D. Gates, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. J. P. Roche, Miss Charlotte Lang, Miss Margaret Dawes of Chicago, Miss Elizabeth Olson of New York, Miss Helen Chapman of Lake Geneva, and Miss Elizabeth Atherton of Los Angeles. Mr. Paul Gerhardt of Chicago was best man for the bridegroom.

The ushers were Mr. Frank Goodell of New York, Mr. Paul Owsley, Mr. Townsend Copeland, Mr. Coleman Clague, Mr. George McKinney and Mr. Will Davis, all of Winnetka.

The bride's gown was of white satin made with a court train. The tulle veil was held in place with a tulle cap and rose point lace belonging to her grandmother. The maid of honor wore a gown of orchid georgette crepe over satin and the bridesmaids' gowns were of orchid shades of pink and lavender georgette. The bouquets were in lavender and pink sweet peas. Following the ceremony there was a reception for the families at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore. Mr. and Mrs. Zipf will live in Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. William James Goiman of 1017 Elm street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen Ann, to Elmer W. Wennlund, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wennlund of Evanston, which took place Saturday, June 17, at eight o'clock, the Rev. Herman W. Meyer of Wilmette, officiating. The bride was attended by the Misses Florence Burgdorf, Myrtle Bothner and Margaret Taiser. Carl Burgdorf, an uncle of the bride, served Mr. Wennlund as best man and the ushers were John Herbon, and Clarence Mortenson. The bridal gown was of pale green georgette, and silver, and a silver wreath of leaves of pink rosebuds was worn about the head. She carried a corsage of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a frock of pink organdie, and the bridesmaids were dressed in orchid frocks trimmed with DuPont lace, and all of the attendants carried bouquets of pink rosebuds and forget-me-nots. Only close relatives and a few intimate friends were in attendance.

Of interest is the result of the Sight Reading Contest which was conducted on Tuesday of this week in the Winnetka studio of the Columbia School of Music. The contestants were pupils from the three north shore branches, Wilmette, of which Miss Pearl Barker is principal; Winnetka, Miss Kathleen Air, principal; and Glencoe, Miss Hepley, principal. The students were given entirely new music to read consisting of a song accompaniment, duet, both parts and a piece. The judges were Mrs. O. J. West of Glencoe, Mrs. Aaron Younker, Mrs. Louis Schmid and Mrs. Harry Jackson of Winnetka. The winners in the different grades were Janet Olmsted, Winnetka, Grade A; Dorothy Swartz, Glencoe, Grade B; Helen Ball, Winnetka, Grade C; Katherine Roach, Winnetka, Grade D; Ruth Findlay, Glencoe, Grade E; Ruth Jackson, Winnetka, Grade F. The prizes consisted of season tickets for the Children's Concerts, New Trier High School Concerts and Chicago Symphony Children's Concerts.

Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Frank Stover, the Rosewood Circle, entertained the Scott Avenue Circle with an informal exhibit of the works of Mr. Fernan de Guedre, a versatile artist whose exquisite photographic portraits are attracting wide attention. Mr. de Guedre, the possessor also of an unusually beautiful tenor voice, was there in person, and delighted his audience with a program of French songs.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Montgomery of 15 Green Bay Road, Hubbard Woods, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Ellen, to Mr. John Crawley at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City. Mr. Crawley, who is a New York lawyer, was the head of the Junior Red Cross work in Albania while Miss Montgomery was stationed there in charge of the School for Orphan Refugees at Scutari.

Mrs. S. C. Hancock of 153 Bertling lane, returned Saturday from a three week's trip east, visiting friends in Maplewood, N. J., and Youngstown, O. Mrs. Hancock and her small daughter, Evelyn, are in Belvidere, Ill., this week-end, attending the wedding of Miss Thero Tefft and Mr. Edwin Albert Loop of Washington, D. C. Evelyn will play the role of flower girl in the wedding party.

On Saturday last the employees of the Norton Door Closer company enjoyed an all-day picnic on the estate occupied by the Scharfs on Sheridan road at Braeside. The ball game in the morning and the varied tests and stunts of the afternoon were great fun for the men and their families to the number of two hundred whose homes are in a congested part of the city.

Miss Janet Gordon, 874 North avenue, left yesterday to spend the greater part of the summer with friends in Charlevoix, Mich. George, Margaret and Nancy Gordon are leaving today for the Gordon cottage on Lake Hamlin, where they will remain all summer. John Gordon is spending his vacation on a farm in Connecticut.
