Train Dispatcher Has Odd Rodent Eradicator

Clarksburg, W. Va.—William E. Starcher, local traction train dispatcher, former member of the House of Delegates and candidate for the House again, says the only way to clear the barn or the house of rats is to use your flivver. Back it up to the barn, attach a tube to the exhaust, and turn on the engine and let her flicker. The rats, half dead from the poisonous fumes, rush out into the open and can be easily captured in a bucket, where they die.

London Taxi Drivers Have Funeral Ritual

London—Here is something new in funerals. When a member of the Taxi Drivers' Association dies in London he is given a state funeral, which includes a broken wheel on the top of the casket, and the empty cab of the deceased driver follows in the procession behind the coffin.
