

Royal Arcanum
News

Next Monday night will be the occasion of an old time hot-dog party at the meeting of Winnetka Council 1131 of the R. A. Roasting weenies will be the headliner of the evening, together with games, and other entertainment, besides other things to satisfy the appetite and quench the thirst (we won't be able to have any real stuff as we've got a member who's a cop and it might be a trifle risky; however, we'll get something to satisfy!) The place will be just north of the water tower at North avenue on the beach at Brother Clarke's encampment where he promises to have a hot fire and cool breeze from the lake and cold water for anyone who wants to swim. What's more, he has agreed to provide the rations and so you members don't bring anything but yourself and your good humor and spend an enjoyable evening. Games and entertainment will be on hand and if the stars don't come out, light has also been promised. We hope to have a large and jolly membership out.

The council's last outdoor meeting at Brother Meleney's home was successful in all respects. A large membership was on hand, the business of evening was carried out, during which, we wish to announce to our members, Brother W. Klauke was elected collector, and Brother A. T. Weinstock, treasurer, for the rest of this year. After meeting games followed, and refreshments, spiced with songs and piano selections.

HORTICULTURALISTS' DANCE

A dance will be given at the Community House, Saturday, September 30, by the New Trier Horticultural society. Good music and a good crowd are promised.

Up-To-Date "E. B."

E. B. Taylor, of E. B. Taylor and company, is a progressive business man of the village. He's so progressive that a Winnetka citizen wrote a series of brief articles on "Why I trade at Taylor's."

Residents Asked to View
North Shore's Gardens

Next Tuesday is the date set for the Flower Show of the North Shore Garden club, at the Lake Shore Country club. Guides will be at the club to show patrons through some of the most beautiful gardens on the north shore, including those of Louis B. Kuppenheimer, Hubbard Woods; Moses Born, Glencoe; Sam Marx, Glencoe; George Pick, Glencoe; Charles Stonehill, Glencoe; Julius Rosenwald, Ravinia, and Jonas Kuppenheimer, Ravinia.

Mr. Charles Aiken, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Aiken, Jr., 849 Lincoln avenue, left Thursday for Glacier National Park, and will be joined later on by Gayle Aiken and a group of friends.

CADILLAC

It is worthy to remark that the immense advantages that Cadillac offers—the resources of its powerful organization, the fruit of its engineering genius, and the remarkable development of its service facilities—have not added to, but have decreased the price of the car.

There is satisfaction for the Cadillac owner in knowing that in first-cost as well as after-cost, he enjoys the greatest motor car value in the world.
