

BRING CHAMPIONSHIP TO VILLAGE, IS APPEAL

Class C—C. D. Nicholls
Class D—Kraft or Wilson
(Card not turned in)

August Tourney On

The August class tournament is now in progress. There will be another in September, after which the winners in the various classes for the four months will compete for the season's championship in each class, the prize in Class A being the handsome cup donated by Mrs. E. S. Rogers.

The qualifying round for the John Martin cup (donated by Mr. W. H. Martin) was held last week and the match rounds in this event will start this Saturday.

The Park Board cup will be competed for in September, having been postponed from July as announced in the published schedule.

Events for Women

The attention of the women members of the association is called particularly to the Douglas Smith Women's Championship Trophy (a beautiful silver water pitcher) to be competed for in September. The qualifying round for this event will take place Tuesday, September 12, and the match rounds will follow on succeeding Tuesdays. This is to be a handicap affair at 9 holes for all except the final round, which is to be 18 holes. Only a few women thus far have turned in score cards for handicap purposes. In order that they may be properly handicapped it is absolutely necessary that they turn in scores from time to time. All those who expect to take part in this event are urged to turn in at least five complete scores for 9 holes, with their names and addresses written plainly on the cards, at the earliest possible date. The time is getting short and the committee cannot make handicapping for this event a matter of guess work at the last minute.

Attention is called to the necessity for women who expect to compete in this event to be members of the Playfield association. Their husbands' or brothers' memberships will not qualify them. Send $1.00 with name and address to C. W. Happ, secretary, 823 Spruce st.

Summarizing seriatim, the following important items are urged upon the attention of readers of this article—particularly those who are members of the Playfield association and those desiring to become members:

1. PAY YOUR DUES. Send $1.00 to C. W. Happ, Secretary, 823 Spruce st. There has been a most amazing neglect on the part of a large number of members of this small but extremely important matter.

2. Send $1.00, or more, to Barret Conway, President, 387 Linden st., to help out on the Toledo Tournament fund.

3. Turn in your score cards for all tournament matches promptly, properly signed, witnessed and dated.

4. Women: Turn in score cards without further delay for handicap purposes.

5. Women: Join the Association so that you may compete for the Women's Championship trophy in September.

SEEK RAVINIA BOOKS FOR POOR FAMILIES

Sponsors Find Use For Unused Coupons

Those unused Ravinia Opera coupons, which customarily are thrown into the discard when the holders depart on the mid-summer vacations, are to be employed to good purpose, if the plan of Ravinia sponsors meets with general response on the north shore.

The plan, as described in last week's issue of The Winnetka Weekly Talk, suggests that patrons of the opera, who do not expect to use all the coupons in their books, place the books in the hands of local social service workers so that they may in turn be given to poor people who, though appreciative of good music and welcome entertainment, cannot otherwise afford the pleasures of Ravinia because of the attendant expense.

Miss Garretson, Winnetka visiting nurse, will be pleased to accept the coupon books for distribution in Winnetka. The coupons may be sent to her at Community House, or to William E. Hadley, Principal Correspondence School for the Blind.

HUBBARD WOODS ADDS TO SPEEDERS' QUOTA

"Peterson and Ottone," reads the speed docket arrest list for the past week. Together the "night riders" gathered in a goodly lot of speed demons. Wilmarth Ickes, son of Harold I. Ickes, of Hubbard Woods, was the highest paying offender of the week. The chief and his riding partner overtook Ickes, while he was driving a little faster than 49 miles an hour. $35, and costs was the contribution.

Hubert Barthelme was assessed $20 for doing faster than 39 miles an hour.

Raymond Krum, Chicago, paid $20 for going 43 miles an hour, and five miles less in the same period of time cost J. R. Montgomery, Jr., $5 less than Mr. Krum. Figure it out.

Beatrice Hunter of Oak Park and August Pesenicken, of Glen View must appear for the offense of parking without lights. Charles Beltsch, of Highland Park paid $6 "and" for speeding. R. K. Ballard, 862 Foxdale, paid $15 and costs for going 40 miles an hour. Bartlett Holman, a Northwestern university student, was assessed $15, plus, for going at the rate of 33 miles an hour. Twenty-nine miles per cost John Ostrowsky $7 and costs. He lives at 1487 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods.

William Schmidt, of Evanston was assessed $10 and costs. Other offenders were Joe English, Sam Carso, and D. Hilleman, all of Chicago, and A. Lipscomb, of 344 Madison avenue, Glencoe. The last named paid an $8 fine for going 29 miles an hour.

MAMMOTH PARADE OPENS OUTING DAY

conservative estimates by the business men set the number of picnickers at near the 6,000 mark. The dance floor was crowded from sundown until the Arns orchestra reluctantly doled out the plaintive "Good Night, Ladies."

Led by a squad of the north shore's finest, with Chief Peterson of Winnetka in the van, the parade, scheduled to start at Wilmette got under way shortly after ten o'clock. The automobile of Colonel and Mrs. Pickard followed, then Chief Sieber, riding in the Wilmette police car, then came the car driven by L. F. Hollister, President of the New Trier Commercial association. This car, decorated in delicate shades of blue, yellow and pink, was given first prize by the judges, who reviewed the cars in the stand at Elm street and Lincoln avenue, Winnetka.

Officials Are Judges

The judges were F. W. Penfield, H. L. Woolhiser, C. C. Schultz, and F. W. Streed. The Schultz and Nord car followed in line, after which came the Dodge, the grand prize of the day. McDaniels' Kissel Kar followed. Eight Lexingtons from the Evanston agency were next in line, one of them bearing "George and Martha Washington," in costume. Following these autos, came three cars from the Evanston Motor Sales company, which purveys the Haynes, the Maxwell and the Chalmers. The Rennekar Drug company with a yellow creation, worthy of an honorable mention, came next.

Blomdahl and Sundmark, Winnetka boosters, followed. Then came N. A. Breden, F. J. Woodcock, followed riding a bicycle of the vintage of 1890, with a high front wheel and tiny trailer. He wore a golf outfit, and was greeted with cheers all along the way. Two automobiles from his Wilmette realty company followed. H. H. Trego, auto painters, were next in line. R. M. Johnston, real estate firm, had for their display a tiny bungalow, built inside a plot of trees, a "love nest" effect, which probably induced two or three betrothals along the line of march. The Warble Warehouse, Bake-mo Painting company, Kaplan Tailors, Thomas J. Lynch, P. F. McCall, Aram K. Mestjian, with a rug exhibit, H. C. Schultz, H. Gaithers, the North Shore Line's red and white, second honor car, the Skokie Motor company's Fordson tractor, Ford Chassis and coupe, the Wilmette Grocery and Market, and Schultz and Nord were the next entries.

Flower Float Wins

A Franco, painters and decorators, with samples of their work alongside of their car, were next in line. The Wilmette Glass Works, and the Henry Deaver company, the Kenilworth express, William J. Schneider, grocers, the Edinger Coal company, H. J. Antoine, the Evanston Cleansers, with two delivery trucks, the Iredale Storage company with two moving vans, were the paraders following. Henry Ilg, florist, whose "Say it with flowers" decorated truck brought him third prize, was the next entry.

Two trucks from the Warble Storage company were next in the procession. The Smith-Duce Moving company, followed by three cars from the Nelson Brothers Laundry, with the North Shore Construction company behind, was the next quota of automobiles. Three trucks from the Washington Laundry, one from the Family Laundry, a machine from the Wilmette Building Material company, the Scully Transfer company, the Exide Batteries, Herbert W. Paulson, decorator, were other companies following in order.

Gas and Moonshine Do Not Mix; Man Convicted

Cincinnati. — Bootleggers' experiments to the contrary whiskey and gasoline don't mix in Cincinnati, and because of this Clifford Harvey paid $50 and costs and is spending a month's vacation in the workhouse. Judge Yeatman not only imposed this sentence in Police Court, but also suspended Harvey's right to drive a car for three months when he was arraigned on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

company, the Hubbard Woods Garage, A. C. Wolff, C. R. Peters, Herbon Brothers' truck with the band inside, tooting along the roadside, with Van Deusen's car, were the others in line. It is probable that others joined the procession, after it got under way.

SENTIMENT

A dollar never becomes sentimental—but it gives good service to the thrifty.

A DOLLAR never becomes sentimental. It says "good bye" as smilingly as it says "hello." The thrifty man imprisons his dollars in a savings bank and keeps on adding to the balance. They earn a good rate of interest for him and when he is ready to make a real investment he is certain we can give him real disinterested advice.
