

JUDGES ANNOUNCE THE BIG PARADE PRIZES

Lake Shore, Johnston, Ilg Win First Honors

Prizes for the best decorated cars in the New Trier Day parade are announced by the officials who judged the floats, H. L. Woolhiser, C. C. Schultz, F. W. Streed and F. W. Penfield, as follows: In class one, The Lake Shore Publishing company's car was awarded the $25 first prize. The Rennecker Drug company was awarded the Slo-Light, offered by the Dependable Auto Supply company; the visor donated by the Skokie Motor company went to Charles S. Peterson; Thomas Lynch was given five gallons of Mobiloil by the Winnetke Motor company, and the inner tube from the Skokie Tire and Vulcanizing company went to Aram K. Mestjian.

R. M. Johnston was given the casings offered by the Dependable Auto Supply company, for the best decorated Ford. Second prize, casings offered by the Hallstrom Filling station went to J. F. Eckart. H. H. Trego was awarded the spotlight from the Wilmette Tire and Vulcanizing company, and H. J. Antoine's four gallons of Warco oil went to the Skokie Motor company, the Fordson tractor being adjudged unique. Henry Ilg, florist, with a "Say it with Flowers," garden truck took first honors in the truck contest. It was a barrel of Sinclair Oil, offered by the Sinclair Oil company. A. J. Woodcock riding an old time cycle, although not strictly in the truck class was adjudged the most unique parader, and given second prize in the heavy carrier section, five gallons of oil, and four spark plugs by the Hubbard Woods Garage. The Skokie Motor company's spotlight was given to the North Shore Electric company, for a blossom decked truck. A. Franco, with samples of decorating adorning his car, took the fourth honors.

MORE CONTRIBUTIONS TO NEW TRIER PRIZES

A number of companies which contributed prizes were omitted from the list published in the New Trier Day Program, and for this reason they are printed in this week's issue. They are the Gross Point Bakery company, of Gross Point, the Winnetka Coal-Lumber company, and C. T. Northrop of Winnetka, Wilmette Confectionery Store of Wilmette and the following wholesale firms of Chicago: Mallott-Johnson company, 2914-16 Lincoln avenue, W. M. Walker, 1122 South Water street, Procter and Gamble company, 349 West Ontario street, and the Old Monk Olive Oil company.

Quality Is Economy

Among the owners of the Wills Sainte Claire are hundreds of men and women who can afford any kind of a motor car. They drive the Wills Sainte Claire because, in all their motoring experience, they have found it to be the best

SCALES MOTORS CO.
EVANSTON ILLINOIS

WILLS SAINTE CLAIRE

Motor Cars

© C. H. W. Co.

Be Very Sure

of the funeral director that you call in when some loved one passes on. Inexperienced or inefficient morticians can cause a great deal of embarrassment and trouble—and at a time when one has all the trouble they can bear.

We are always available with a real and personal service.

PHONE EVANSTON 600

906 CHICAGO AVE.

Ross D. Heaps

DISTINCTIVE FUNERAL SERVICE

UNKNOWN BOY SCOUT RESCUES LITTLE GIRL

Miss Enid Henderson, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Henderson, 1405 Forest avenue, Wilmette is confined in bed at her home as a result of severe burns received Thursday, August 24.

The Hendersons were attending the Kiwanis picnic and celebration at Ravinia Park when the accident occurred. An alcohol stove on which coffee was being boiled overturned, setting fire to the surrounding grass. The burning grass ignited the clothes of the little girl and before the fire could be extinguished she was severely burned about the arms and body. For several days it was doubtful whether she would live, but she is now recovering. An unknown boy scout, about fifteen years of age, rescued the child from burning by quickly coming to her assistance and beating out the fire on her clothes, which were entirely burned from her body.

HOYBURN THEATRE

615 Davis St., Evanston
MATINEES 2 & 4 EVENINGS 7 & 9

NEXT WEEK National Paramount Week

Monday — LABOR DAY — Sept. 4
Continuous

"JUST AROUND THE CORNER"

By FANNIE HURST, AUTHOR of HUMORESQUE

Tuesday Sept. 5

"THE SPANISH JADE"

with DAVE POWELL and MARC MacDERMOTT

A Dramatic Romance of Life in the Spanish Hills and Towns

THIS PICTURE WAS MADE IN SPAIN

Wednesday Sept. 6

AGNES AYRES

"THE ORDEAL"

Thur.—Fri. Sept. 7-8

MARY MILES MINTER

"SOUTH OF SUVA"

Saturday Sept 9

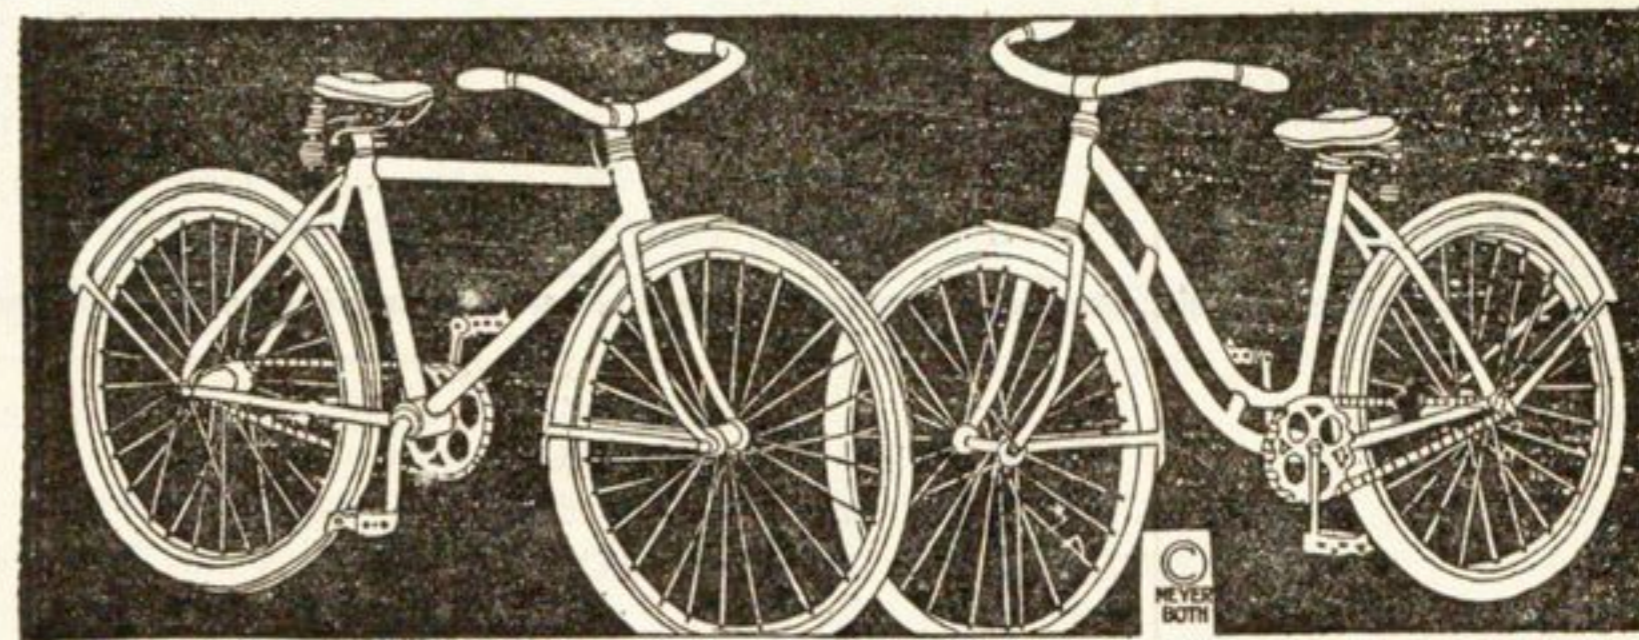

Return Again by Popular Demand

"THE SHEIK"

with RODOLPH VALENTINO

SPECIAL OFFER

LIMITED TIME

Bicycles and Wheel Toys

Bicycles.....	$1.00 Cash
Balance $1.00 week
Velocipedes.....	1.00 Cash
Balance $1.00 week
Wagons.....	1.00 Cash
Balance $1.00 week
28-inch Bicycle Tires, $2 value, each $1.00

Phone Evanston 123

Chandler's
Fountain Square
EVANSTON

Phone Evanston 123

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR VEHICLES

Pleasure and Business Cars
Excellent Delivery

Wm. T. Wehrstedt, Prop.

562 Lincoln Avenue

Winnetka Illinois

Accessories
Batteries
Vulcanizing
Tires
Repairing

Cars for Rent
Drive Yourself

Painting
Washing
Simonizing
Storage
Welding