Miss Helen Osgood Becomes Bride of John Stuart King

THE First Congregational Church of Wilmette was the scene of a lovely wedding on Tuesday evening, when Miss Helen Kinyon Osgood became the bride of John Stuart King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. King, of 792 Glencoe road, Glencoe. Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd read the service at eight-thirty o'clock.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Richard Osgood, wore a lovely gown of white satin and rose point lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a band of orange blossoms. Miss Margaret Osgood, who was her sister's only attendant, wore a frock of green georgette and crepe de chine, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and larkspur.

Mr. Philip G. King attended his brother as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Dougal Kittermaster and Whipple Jacobs of Glencoe, Davis Foster of Beloit, Wis., J. C. Hostetter of Decatur, George Van Hagen, Jr., of Chicago, and A. Miles Wright of Evanston.

The church proper and the parlors, in which the reception was held, were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, ivy and the white gladiolus.
