Petticoat Lane Work-Shop Opens 4-College Benefit

PETTICOAT LANE, the four-college benefit which is occupying the attention of college women along the North Shore, has hung out its shingle on its work shop. The shingle is a giddy rose and green and blue sign, bearing the picture of a mid-Victorian lady with a bouquet in each hand and a long and full skirt. She swings, dangling in the breezes, from that much utilized building at the juncture of Hinman avenue and Sheridan road in Evanston, once a barn and belonging to Mrs. George E. Reynolds. This barn, which has won fame through previous service in other college drives for funds, is now labeled Petticoat Lane Work-shop. Here various committees of North Shore college women gather daily to work on the myriad articles which are to go on sale when the real Petticoat Lane opens November 10th, at the Country club of Evanston.

Meanwhile under the able co-chairmanship of Mrs. George B. Dryden and Mrs. Robert S. DeGolyer preparations proceed apace. Husbands also have volunteered their service and here rehearsals under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Stanwood are soon to begin for a play in whose cast it is rumored, gentlemen are in the majority.

The presidents of the North Shore groups of the various colleges are: Mrs. Pierce C. Ward of Winnetka, Vassar; Mrs. Wilson H. Perrine of Evanston, Wells; Miss Ruth Hynes of Evanston, Wellesley, and Mrs. James M. Stiffer of Evanston, Goucher college.

The Arrowood lawn in Winnetka will be the scene of the opening of the 1922-23 season of the North Shore MacDowell Society when Jens Jensen, the noted artist and landscape architect, will give an illustrated lecture on "Art in Nature". The meeting will take place on Thursday evening, September 14, at 8:15 o'clock. According to the papers of incorporation the object of the Society is "The advancement and encouragement of the American Art and for the assistance of the Edward MacDowell colony at Peterborough, N. H." This means creative art. There are innumerable organizations doing some form of art development but none with quite the same character as this society. Any person having the desire to make of our country and our section a better place for the creative mind by giving intelligent appreciation of art, is eligible whether he or she be a creative worker or not.

Those joining before September 14 will be entitled to attend the opening. Any of the following officers may be communicated with in regard to membership: president, Mrs. Milton Arrowood of Winnetka; first vice-president, Jens Jensen of Ravinia; second vice-president, Oliver Hinsdell of Evanston; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Arthur Dean of Winnetka, recording secretary and treasurer, Pierre Blouke of Chicago.
