

EVERY OFFICER AN ATHLETE, U. S. PLAN

Go in Strong for Training Men Physically

Washington—"Every officer an athlete" is the big idea behind the training of the future generals and admirals of the American Army and Navy today.

At Annapolis Rear-Admiral Henry B. Wilson, superintendent, is backing every midshipman to tackle as many forms of sport as his talents permit. At present of the 2,200 future naval officers more than 1,800 are "out" for some athletic team. Besides the popular favorites of baseball and football, there are track, basketball, lacrosse, hockey, swimming, fencing tennis, boxing and wrestling teams at the academy, so that the cadet has a wide field of operations.

Sports have become a part of the curriculum at West Point, the army's school. During the four-year course of training the cadet is required to devote a certain number of hours every week to a regular schedule of various sports, similar to the range at Annapolis, and including among others polo. The routine gymnasium training is carried out at both academies in addition to the various athletic competitions.

The underlying idea, of course, is that if every officer is a qualified exponent of several forms of athletic training when that officer has command of a group of men later he will be an interested and capable leader in their recreation as well as in the field of war.

YOUTHS THRIVE ON LOST GOLF BALLS

Hide in Grass; Grab "Wild Ones"

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Golfers on the Municipal links have just come into their own through the aid of Superintendent of Parks George W. Burke and Magistrate Tensard Dewolf, of Morals Court. A pernicious practice of caddies and other bad boys has been stopped. Since the season opened this year golfers who hit the ball out of sight or off the course have been obliged to say "Good-by!" to those balls. But in a few minutes the caddies or some other kid would sell the "lost" ball back to the golfer for ten cents. Superintendent Burke declares that a lot of boys hid in the bushes or tall grass and grabbed a good many balls and resold them over and over again. It developed into a thriving business and a costly nuisance.

Henceforth all sellers of balls will be arrested if they cannot prove an honest title to same. Golfers buying stolen balls will be barred from the links. "And anybody brought before me in this connection I'm going to give a maximum sentence," said the Magistrate.

Moving pictures and photographs may be transmitted through the air by a newly discovered method.

Modern tools were used by pyramid builders, indications showing they worked with solid and tubular drills and straight and circular saws.

Cantilevers Are Restful Shoes for Men and Women

We all complain about uncomfortable chairs. And yet it is less tiring to be seated than to stand. If all people would exercise the same haste in selecting comfortable shoes as they do in securing the most comfortable seats, there wouldn't be enough Cantilever Shoes to go around.

Fortunately it takes a long time to bring home to everyone the news about Cantilever Shoes. Advertising a good article is a slow process; only the fakir can sell quickly and he has to be quick. We see new buyers of Cantilever Shoes every day; we shall continue to have new buyers every day; we know how good these shoes are and we are going to keep on advertising them.

They're good looking shoes. They're comfortable. They're well made, according to scientific principles which are for your benefit—not ours. They're priced right—a dollar value for a dollar cost. Not the old dollar but the new dollar. They're restful shoes, as nice to stand in and walk in as your easy chair is to sit in.

"Better Shoes—Better Feet; Better Feet—Better Health." Come and see the Cantilever.

PETITION CHANGES HORSE RACE RULES AT BELMONT PARK

New York—Dissatisfaction over the conditions governing selling and claiming races has led to a petition being drawn up at Belmont park, which in due time will be presented to the steward of the Jockey club. No recommendations for any specific changes will be made, but it is an open secret that the rule governing claiming races in Kentucky would be acceptable.

It is contended here that abuses creep in because of the chance to protect a horse and of giving the opportunity for claiming after a race is run and a horse's form disclosed.

In the middle west a horse must be claimed before a race for his entered price plus the gross value of the purse, but must run in the interest of his original owner in that particular race.
