Young Folks Make Preparations for Their Entrance into College

SEPTEMBER brings thoughts of school, and many of our young folks are planning their exodus from the north shore within the next week or so. Added to the long list of young men and women who went to college last year is the majority of the graduating class at New Trier high school last June, forty of whom will attend Northwestern university this winter. They are Wilbur Bruns, Frane Beloian, Edmund Berglund, Marcia Bidamon, Douglas Boyer, Jr., Luella Burrows, Kathryn Crush, Frances Dennis, Leonora Dungee, Leonard Ekvall, Ralph English, Dorothy Hess, Jane Hill, Raymond Hillinger, Mary Jackson, Sheldon Klock, Harold Lundberg, Marion Melbye, Virginia Moore, Wallace Muehlberg, Elizabeth Pope, Edgar Seelman, Katherine Shaw and Elise Warner of Wilmette; Lionel Anderson, Philip Eisen-draht, Ruth McClain, Dorothy Root, and Mary Whitaker of Winnetka; James Carpenter, and Virginia Grover of Hubbard Woods; Paul Corbett, Hazel Frazer, and Elizabeth Thorsen of Kenilworth; Beatrice Bartholf, George Budd, and Gertrude MacRae, of Glencoe.

Fifteen of the graduating class will enter the University of Illinois on September 20, the group including Helen Haack, Bradlee Prudem, Albert Rand, Robert Skelton, Byron Smith, Jr., Harold Donaldson and Edwin Thompson of Wilmette, Luther Adams, Richmond Battey, Joseph Dunlap of Winnetka, and Louis Beale of Hubbard Woods.

Dartmouth college is the choice of Delwyn Worthington of Glencoe, David Levy, Arthur Seibold, Norman Shellman and Stuart Sherman of Wilmette, while John Gilman will go to Bowdoin college in Maine, Brownell Bradstreet and Francis Cook, Jr., of Winnetka and Arthur Poole of Kenilworth, will enter Cornell. John Holloway of Glencoe, is leaving shortly for Princeton and Marion Eddy of Hubbard Woods is going to Oberlin for her freshman year. Dorothy Camp, Marie Levi, Elizabeth Siddall, Ethel Wray of Wilmette, Elmore Glennon of Kenilworth, and Ruth Hawley of Winnetka will enter the University of Wisconsin. Margaret Delay and Eleanor Town of Winnetka, Janet Olmsted of Hubbard Woods and Gertrude Ingersoll of Wilmette will attend Smith college; Florence Wheelock of Kenilworth, Harriet Carlsen of Wilmette and Eleanor West of Glencoe, will attend Bradford academy; Dorothy Hartman of Winnetka, Ruth Mills of Glencoe and Ethel Patillo of Wilmette are going to Wellesley. Elizabeth Cullen and Dorothy Troy of Wilmette will be newcomers from New Trier at Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, and Margaret Tawse, also of Wilmette will go to Birmingham, Penn. David Delay and Charles Rummel of Winnetka will enter the University of Michigan; Robert Blodgett and Ronald Crozier of Glencoe, and Philip Bright of Wilmette will attend Beloit college. Virginia French of Wilmette and Anna Levora of Hubbard Woods will attend the University of California; Ethel Omundson and Walker Everett of Kenilworth and Eduard Quayle of Wilmette will go to the University of Chicago; Doris Arnold of Wilmette and Ruthlea Harlan of Kenilworth will enter Rockford college; Gladys Madsen of Winnetka will take up work at the Chicago Musical college; Winifred Mickey of Wilmette will attend Knupfer School of Music; Dorothy Niles of Wilmette will go to the Metropolitan Conservatory of Music in Chicago. Dorothy Shippen of Glencoe will enter the University of Colorado, Laura Slosson of Glencoe, will attend Miss Wheelock's Kindergarten College, and Robert Spaulding of Wilmette will enter Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Montgomery of Hubbard Woods, with their daughter, Marion, have just returned from six weeks in California. As vice-president of the Illinois State Bar association, Mr. Montgomery represented that body at the annual convention of the American Bar association held this year at San Francisco. After visits in San Diego and Santa Barbara, they went up through the Yosemite Valley to the High Sierras, where they camped for several weeks at an altitude of 9,000 feet. They climbed several of the snow-clad peaks, and in the rivers of the canyons had the best trout fishing Mr. Montgomery has ever had, the legal limit of twenty trout a day being reached on every trip. Miss Montgomery returns to Wellesley college next week for her sophomore year.

The marriage of Miss Bernice Shurtleff to Munroe Cole of Wilmette, was quietly solemnized last Saturday evening in the home of her father, Mr. Wilfred C. Shurtleff, 815 Lake avenue, Wilmette. Dr. Solon C. Bronson of Garrett Biblical Institute read the service at six o'clock. Only the members of the immediate families attended the ceremony which was followed by a wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Cole have gone on a month's motor trip in the east, and will be at home after December the first at 911 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette.

Misses Emily and Isabel Scott, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott of Hubbard Woods, will leave very shortly for the Masters School at Dobbs Ferry, Miss Isabel as a freshman and Miss Emily a senior. Mrs. Scott will accompany the girls east, stopping en route for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Robert Cluett, at her summer home in Williams-town, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morse, 433 Provident avenue, will have a house-party at their cottage, "The Oriole" at Pelican Lake, Wis., from September 15th to 26th. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Morse and daughter of Sparta, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Graves and daughter of Wilmette and Mrs. J. G. Irwin of Milwaukee.

The new Ash Street Circle will hold its first meeting Tuesday, September 19, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. C. V. Sommer, 425 Provident avenue. A good attendance is desired. There will be important business, a fine program and a good time.

Mrs. George W. Gordon and family, 874 North avenue, have returned from their summer home at Lake Hamlin, Mich. They have as their guest this week Miss Carolyn Curtiss, a former Winnetka school teacher, who has been with Mrs. Marrietta Johnston at her school in Alabama for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hawley and their daughter, Ruth, 734 Foxdale avenue, are leaving Sunday by automobile for Madison. Accompanying them will be Miss Dorothy King of Wilmette and Miss Lucille Rutledge of Chicago, who will attend the university.

The Oak Street Circle will meet next Tuesday afternoon, September 19 at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Richard D. Webster, 466 Provident avenue. As this is the opening meeting and there is much business to be taken care of, it is desired that there be a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler, who returned last week from an extended European trip, will move back into their own home at 9 Indian Hill road, sometime next week. At present they are residing with Mrs. Thomas P. Smith, Jr., on Sheridan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walsh have returned to their home at 862 Prospect avenue. Mrs. Walsh has been in Great Barrington, Mass., for several weeks, and Mr. Walsh has been residing at the University club in Chicago during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Allen, 648 Elder lane, entertained informally at a dancing party at St. Matthew's parish house, Evanston, on Thursday evening in honor of the Misses Theodora Mitchell, Helene O'Boyle and Margaret Kidder of Evanston, who are leaving shortly for college.

Mrs. George F. Gonsalves and children returned from their summer home at Three Lakes, Wis., Sunday and have been at the North Shore hotel all week. They expect to move back into their own home at 635 Rosewood avenue, today.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Bradstreet motored east to meet their son, Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. Landon Hoyt, Sr., and their daughter, Josephine, on their return from a summer abroad. They will visit in the east until time for Brownell to enter Cornell, after which they will motor home.

Monsieur Georges Cauuet will open his French classes at the Winnetka Woman's club, as in previous years, on October 9. Later in the season he expects to conduct a special class in conversation and a series of lectures.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Bacon and two children have left to motor to their home in New York. They have been spending the summer with Mrs. Bacon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom, in Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. Eva J. Whitright and son, Max, of New York, formerly of Winnetka, have been visiting friends here for the past week. Mrs. Whitright returns to New York, and her son will go to the University of Wisconsin to complete his work.

Miss Marjorie Windes, daughter of Mrs. Mabel R. Windes, 873 Spruce street, is leaving Sunday for Madison, where she will attend the University of Wisconsin as a sophomore.

Mrs. Basil Thompson and children, who have occupied the Washburne house on Chestnut street all summer, are returning to their home in New Orleans very shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kongsberg, 198 Woodlawn avenue, who have been at Lake Geneva all summer, have taken up their residence at the Shorecrest hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ball, 1107 Linden street, have as their guests Mr. Ball's sister, Mrs. H. Westover of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mrs. Ball's aunt, Mrs. Alice M. Cooksley of Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huth of Milwaukee, formerly of Winnetka, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Krause, 824 Humboldt avenue.
