Society To Sponsor Triple Card Party Benefit Grove House

A MAMMOTH bridge party in three sections, one in Winnetka, one in Evanston and one in Chicago, will take place on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 10, for the benefit of the Grove House for Convalescents. Mrs. Hathaway Watson, Mrs. Cuthbert Adams, Mrs. Francis Butler, Mrs. Calvin Fentress, Mrs. H. A. deWindt, Mrs. R. H. Hobart, Mrs. Lawrence Houteling, Mrs. William B. McIlvaine, Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, Mrs. Merritt Starr, Mrs. John Stuart, Mrs. Arthur Tuttle and Mrs. Morris Wilson compose the committee of the Winnetka division. The drawing rooms in the homes of Mrs. Hathaway Watson, Mrs. James L. Houteling, Mrs. Ralph Hobart, Mrs. Hermon B. Butler, and one other to be announced at a later date, will be opened for the affair.

Mrs. Houteling is a daughter of the late Mrs. S. B. Peabody, who was prominently identified with the founding of Grove House more than thirty years ago. The institution was incorporated in 1902, and cares for hundreds of women and children recommended by hospitals and social service organizations, who need a period of rest and care before returning to work. It has had little publicity, depending largely upon private subscriptions and upon the small amounts the patients themselves are sometimes able to pay.

The Evanston party is to be held in the ball room of the North Shore hotel. The committee working hard for its success includes Mesdames D. H. Vernon, Frederick S. Colburn, George Dryden, Chester Ericson, P. C. Fuller, A. B. Jones, John Towne and John E. Wilder.

Tickets for tables for the affair may be secured from any member of the committee. A number of the local firms and some in Chicago, have generously donated prizes for the benefit.

The North Shore Musical Society, formerly known as The Wilmette Musical Society, held the first meeting of the season Tuesday afternoon, September 12. A most enjoyable program of Indian music was given by Mrs. Marjorie Sherman, Mrs. Erna Blythe Akely, Mrs. Eugenia McShane, Miss Pauline Pettibone, Miss Dorothy Rae, Mrs. Burkhardt and the vocal trio, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Seaver and Miss Rae. The organization holds its regular meeting the first Tuesday of each month.

No more beautiful setting for the lecture "Art in Nature," by our great genius Jens Jensen, could be found than on the Arrowwood lawn on last Thursday night. A curtain stretched with the overhanging boughs and the high elms behind it, formed an ideal background for those glimpses of nature paintings which were made so real by the great understanding of Jens Jensen.

Nature's handiwork was carried beyond the screen when the Japanese lanterns illumined the flora of the garden and the large chestnut tree with its spreading branches adorning the vast lawn.

This was the opening of the season of 1922-23 of the North Shore MacDowell Society, whose officers are: Mrs. Milton Arrowood, president; Jens Jensen, first vice-president; Oliver Hinsdell, second vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Dean, corresponding secretary; Pierre Blouke, recording secretary and treasurer.

Stanley Parker, Mrs. Edward Rogers, and Mrs. John Vennema. Tickets may be purchased in Kenilworth from Mrs. Mark Cresap, Mrs. Lillian J. Taylor, or Mrs. Stanley Clague; in Winnetka, from Mrs. Frank J. Bersbach, Mrs. Edward Rogers, Mrs. Arthur Dean, Mrs. John R. Montgomery, Mrs. Percival Hunter, Mrs. Chester Sargent, Mrs. William A. Thrall or Mrs. Dudley French; in Glencoe, from Mrs. George Pope, and in Evanston from Mrs. G. Stanley Parker of the Evanston hotel.

The Winnetka Woman's Club will start the work for the season of 1922-23 on Thursday, October 5. A new departure has been made from the opening of recent years. This will be a luncheon at 1:30 o'clock in honor of former presidents of the club. Six of the presidents of other years will be present and each will make a five-minute talk, after which a musical program will be given, in charge of the Music committee.

Checks for luncheon reservation may be sent not later than Saturday, September 30, to Mrs. Stephen A. Foster, 596 Maple avenue, chairman of the Social committee or to any of the following members of the committee: Mrs. Marc Newman, Mrs. Frank J. Bersbach, Mrs. Godfrey Atkin, or Mrs. Pierce Ward.
