

LOCAL CHURCH LEADS ILLINOIS IN GROWTH

Congregational Church Wins Distinction

The recently published year-book of the Congregational churches of America reveals the interesting fact that the Winnetka Congregational church showed a greater growth of membership in 1921 than any other Congregational church in Illinois. The church ranking next was the Bryn Mawr church in Chicago, with 114; the local church surpassing this number by thirty.

With the opening of the fall work, Rev. James Austin Richards, the pastor, distributed widely through the parish a questionnaire designed to obtain the thoughts of the parish upon a number of matters of church policy. Replies are coming in with every mail, it is said. The results will presently be tabulated, and it is therefore hoped that members of the church who have not yet answered will hasten to do so, for the value of the results will depend largely upon their completeness.

Distributes Questionnaires

Among the questions put to the parishioners that were expected to receive particularly interesting responses were the following:

Do you believe we should maintain a regular Sunday Evening service? Do you believe we should maintain a regular Mid-Week service? Do you see anything in the suggestion of an early morning service on Sundays, say 9 o'clock? Can you suggest any subject or series of subjects you will like to have treated in sermons or mid-week services?

Building Proposition Item

One question has to do with the proposition of remodeling the present church edifice or the construction of an entirely new building. The parishioners are asked to express their views and offer suggestions relative to this proposition.

The final question takes the parishioner's thoughts far beyond the confines of the church. It reads: Have you any suggestions, big or little, for increasing and improving the service of our church to Winnetka and the world?

Jesse R. Cain Directs Indian Hill Association

Jesse E. Cain, 429 Hawthorne Lane, was elected president of the Indian Hill Improvement association Monday evening of this week at the first meeting of the season of the south Winnetka civic organization. The meeting was held in the New Trier High school auditorium.

Elected to assist Mr. Cain as officers of the association were Arthur E. Bryson, 182 Myrtle street, vice-president, and Hymen L. Raclin, 528 Elder lane, secretary and treasurer. The first meeting of the new club year brought out a large attendance of Indian Hill residents. Following a general discussion of various improvements now under way or contemplated in that vicinity, the members enjoyed a social hour of music and dancing.

No cold mornings with ABC OIL BURNER

Every Winter morning is comfortable with ABC Heat.

Sudden drops or rises in the temperature outdoors do not affect the temperature inside your home. ABC maintains even, gentle, healthful heat twenty-four hours a day, without watching or work.

There are no grates to shake or dampers to adjust—no crawling shivering out of bed to coax up a sulky fire

ABC Heat is automatic in all that the word implies—both as to operation and control. Fill the outside storage tank once or twice a season and ABC requires no further attention from Fall until Spring. There is not even an auxiliary tank in the basement to be pumped full by hand.

Now, before severe weather actually sets in its time to dispose of your heating problem for this winter and all time to come. Drop into our show room this evening. Let us demonstrate ABC and give you the names of the many entirely satisfied North Shore owners.
