

NO DULL MOMENTS IN 'REPORTED MISSING'

Owen Moore Film Comes to Community House

"Reported Missing," playing at the Community House next Friday, is a moving picture that really moves. If ever the phrase "not a dull moment," was rightfully applied it has been to this picture in which Owen Moore is the leader of a company of performers who have completely mastered the art of entertainment.

The story concerns the efforts of an Oriental shipping king to gain control of a fleet of ships upon which Owen Moore, as Richard Boyd, has an option. In order that young Boyd's option will lapse, the wily Chinaman arranges to have him shanghaied—and then the fun begins. It is just one thrill and laugh after another and the comedy sequences produced a state bordering on the hysteria at yesterday's showing, particularly when Tom Wilson as the hero's faithful colored servant, began wielding a wicked looking razor in the general direction of the yellow cohorts of Oman, the villain.

The biggest thrill in the picture is

An Ideal Occupation for Young Women

We have some positions open for bright young women over eighteen who have finished High School or Grammar School. The pay is good, advancement is steady, working conditions are excellent, and employees are protected by a liberal benefit plan.

a race between a sea sled and a hydroaeroplane which is followed by a chase in high powered machines.

The fight in the home of Oman is the greatest ever and one no lover of conflict should miss. It had yesterday's crowd hanging on to the seats. If you want to be thrilled, amused and have a chance to hiss a villain, see "Reported Missing."

Men's Class Discussion Provides Sermon Subject

"The Foundation of Our Saints," is to be the sermon subject at the Winnetka Congregational church this Sunday morning at the regular 11 o'clock services.

Rev. James Austin Richards, the pastor, will discuss that topic with relation to an address by Prof. Fred Merrifield last Sunday morning before the session of the Sunday Morning Men's Bible class.
