Community Drama Club Presents Mrs. Milton's Play, 'The May Queen'

ON SATURDAY last, the lawn surrounding Dr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler's home, 1109 Sheridan road, furnished an attractive background for a charming one-act play, "The May Queen," by Lucille Forbes Milton, which was presented by the Community Drama club. The scene was laid in a grove of trees on a hillside in old England, at least one's thoughts traveled to England, for the quaint costumes, simple folk songs and dances readily led one back to a real May Day festival in the eighteenth century. Following is the cast of characters:

Some seventy-five or so tables have been sold for the Grove House Benefit Bridge party which is to be held next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the various drawing rooms of some of our Winnetka homes. Those whose homes will be opened are Mrs. Hathaway Watson, Mrs. Ralph Hobart, Mrs. Hermon B. Butler, Mrs. James L. Houghteling, and one other, either that of Mrs. H. A. deWindt or Mrs. W. B. McIlvaine.

Prizes for this mammoth affair, another section of which will be held in Evanston on the same day, have been donated by many friends of Grove House and the following merchants, G. L. Zick and Company, R. H. Schell and Company, Henry Ilg, South Water Fruit Market of Winnetka, and Ruby's, Foster's and Peck and Peck, Chicago.

The Winnetka Committee who have worked so diligently this past month in making preparations for the benefit include Mesdames Hathaway Watson, Cuthbert C. Adams, Francis Butler, Calvin Pentress, Heyliger A. deWindt, Ralph H. Hobart, Lawrence Houghteling, William B. McIlvaine, Frederick H. Scott, Merritt Starr, John Stuart, Arthur Tuttle and Morris Wilson.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Moulding, for the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Robert E. Wooden of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wooden of Centerville, Ia., on Saturday evening, October 14, in the First Methodist Church of Wilmette. Rev. Gilbert Stansell will read the service at 8:30 o'clock, which will be followed by a reception at the Moulding home in Wilmette.

Miss Stanwood, English teacher at New Trier high school, chaperoned several members of her classes to see "Macbeth," Shakespeare's play, as presented by George Arliss, last Saturday evening. The students will be studying Macbeth a little later in the season. Last evening Miss Stanwood accompanied the New Trier Dramatic club in town to see the presentation of "The Green Goddess" done by Arliss.

The engagement has been announced in Paris of Mr. Alan V. Arragon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Arragon of Wilmette, and now with Morgan, Hargis & Company in Paris, to Mademoiselle Luys-Lavignac, granddaughter of the late Dr. Luys and also of the late Professor Albert Lavignac, Director of the Paris Conservatory of Music.

When have you read a book on recent affairs in India? Wouldn't you like to? Yes, it takes time but if you will save Wednesday, October 11, for the purpose you may hear a very recent work on India reviewed by such women as Mrs. Roswell Mason, Mrs. Charles L. Byron, Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, Mrs. William Ayer McKinney, and Mrs. E. E. Brown. Mrs. Francis M. Case will be the hostess at this all day study meeting.
