

Winnetka Woman Honored
by Rock Island Railroad

Mrs. Althea H. Stevens, 1063 Gage street, mother of Mrs. W. S. Hamm, 270 Scott avenue, was honor guest at a banquet this week given by officials of the Rock Island railroad in commemoration of the Fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of the road.

Mrs. Stevens was a passenger on the first Rock Island train on its maiden trip from Chicago to Joliet, fifty years ago Tuesday of this week. When she was 13 years of age she made the journey with an uncle.

Tuesday, the president of the Rock Island railroad journeyed to Winnetka in his automobile, called for Mrs. Stevens and invited her to be the honor guest at the golden anniversary of the road. Mrs. Stevens again negotiated the journey to Joliet on a Rock Island train but, this time, in the President's private car as his honored guest. Motion pictures were taken and later Mrs. Stevens was honor guest at a banquet.

We Bachelors Plan to Keep the Judge in Mind

Magistrate Otto Falk of Gross Point, made it an occasion when "a pleasant time was had by all," when two very embarrassed and exceedingly nervous young persons tapped over so faintly on the portals of his home Monday evening.

The v. e. and e. n. y. p. lost their embarrassment and assimilated great gobbs of courage when the smile of surmounted, broad expanse of the genial magistrate crowded the entrance. A few moments later Evangeline M. B. Koehn decided that she'd henceforth be known as Mrs. Reginald T. Richards and there was joy unconfined in the cosy home of the magistrate.

Eggie and Evangeline are honeymooning, who knows where. They hale from Chicago.

Send it to the Laundry

No woman who thinks anything of her health or her good looks will do her own washing—and we don't blame them—who could?

At the same time we realize that not everyone can afford to have a private laundress, or the expense of a finished wash. A lot of folks who can afford it, don't have it because they are fussy about their ironing; that part they do themselves.

Our Individual Family Wash System solves the question for everybody; it's cheap, safe, rapid and reliable. Try it once just for curiosity's sake!
