

'JESUS' SERVICE, MEN'S CLASS TOPIC

Sunday Morning Class Has Important Discussion

Following through its program of discussion of the "Messianic Hope," the Sunday Morning Men's class of the Congregational church will consider tomorrow the subject "Jesus' Choice of the Life of Disinterested Service."

"What this means," reads an announcement, "is a discussion of the conditions under which Jesus started his work as The Messiah and the transition period from His earlier life to His later one."

Discusses Four Questions

When and how Jesus first began to think He might be The Messiah.

The significance of Jesus' temptation in the development of His self-consciousness.

A comparison between Jesus' experience and His temptations and that which is possible with us.

If His experiences and temptations are not comparable what analogies are there in our own experiences?

Important Subject

William Ayer McKinney, class leader, points to this discussion as one of the most important of the entire season because it not only covers a period of Jesus' life which is probably little known to the laity, but it comes very near being the key and answer to many of the questions that come up about His life.

Special arrangements are being made for talks on this subject and indications are that those who attend will get a most interesting viewpoint of the early history of Christ's life and work.

Attention!

HAVE your car greased and oiled.

FEW people realize how essential it is to have their cars thoroughly greased and oiled at regular intervals by mechanics. The reason is obvious. A mechanic knows every piece of mechanism in a car that is subject to friction. Where there is friction, there must be proper lubrication or there will be wear.

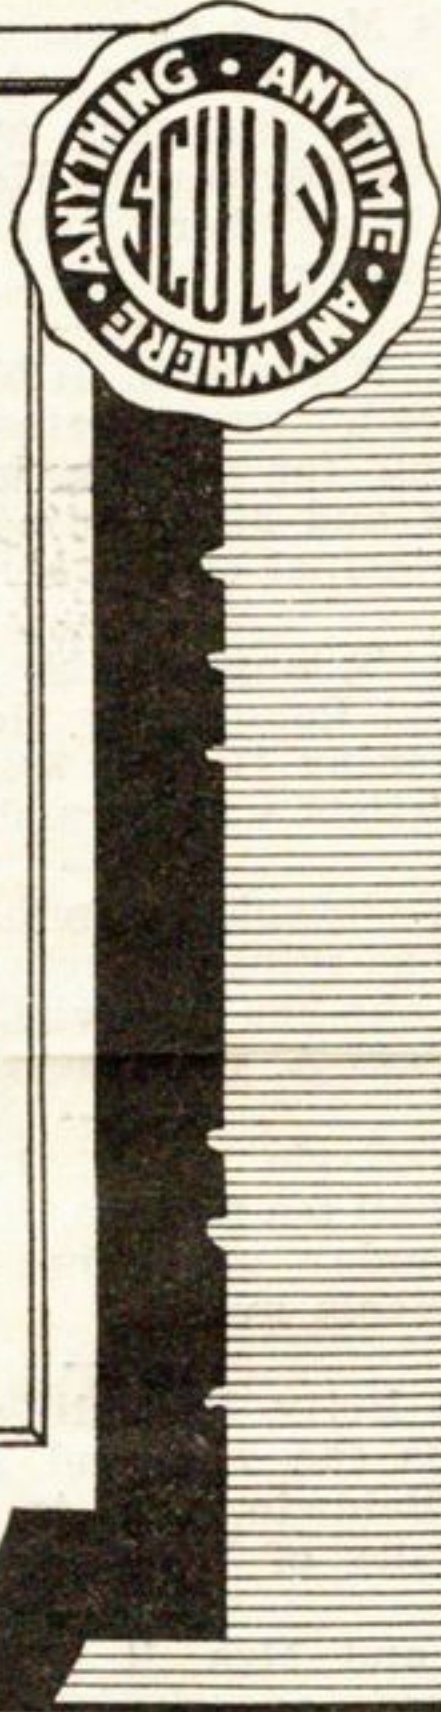

WE are in a position to give you excellent service due to the fact that we have a well constructed greasing platform, allowing us to have access to the most obstructed places.
