

MISSION WORKERS HOLD CONFERENCE

Congregational Missionaries in Parley

Plans are being made by the Congregationalists of the north shore for the entertainment of delegates to the 113th annual meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions which is to be held in the First Congregational church of Evanston from October 24 to 27. Dr. Hugh Elmer Brown, pastor of the entertaining church, is taking a prominent part in making the arrangements.

It is expected that approximately 1,000 visitors will be attracted to Evanston by the meeting. Among these will be forty missionaries who have seen service in Armenia, Cilicia, Anatolia and other parts of what was formerly the Turkish empire; China, Japan, India, Africa and the Philippines. Report of conditions in these countries will be given to the board by the missionaries and by the secretaries. Policies for the guidance of the missionaries and the secretaries of the board will be formulated at the meeting and plans made for assuming responsibility in new fields besides retaining the work on a progressive basis in the old fields.

Plan Rally Meetings

Plans have been made for the holding of local committee and the representatives of the board for the holding of several rallies at which the public may have an opportunity of hearing the missionaries. One such rally for women, under the auspices of the Woman Board of Missions of the Interior, will be held at the First Presbyterian church of Evanston Thursday afternoon, October 26. A rally for young people under the same auspices will be held in the New First Congregational church in Chicago, Monday night, October 23. A banquet will precede the rally. A special business men's luncheon will be held at the Morrison hotel in Chicago, Friday noon, October 27. The committee is also arranging for luncheons and dinners at the North Shore hotel in Evanston during the period of the three-day meeting.

The Rev. William F. English, Jr., district secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, with offices in the Association building in Chicago, is in general charge of the arrangements as the representative of the board.

North Shore Towns Aid

"It is gratifying to the American Board of secretaries to note how splendidly the north shore people are responding to the call to make the stay of the visitors pleasant while in attendance at our annual meeting," said Mr. English. "Everything is being done that can be done. The people of Wilmette and Winnetka are also cooperating in the arrangements."

Mr. English said that it has been thirty years since the annual meeting of the American Board was held in Illinois.

The official call to the meeting was issued from the general headquarters of the organization in Boston and signed by Dr. Cornelius H. Patton, the corresponding secretary.

The Winnetka Congregational church is particularly interested in this great mission conference in view of the fact that the local church has four of her own ministers in the foreign field. Rev. and Mrs. Paul R. Reynolds are located at Fenchow, Shanzi, China, while Rev. and Mrs. Clarence E. Wolsted are located at the American Mission, Madura District, India.
