

NOTED MISSIONARY COMES HERE SUNDAY

L. C. Porter at Congregational Church

Tomorrow morning Lucius C. Porter will be the speaker at the Winnetka Congregational church.

Lucius C. Porter was born in Tientsin, the son of Rev. Henry Porter, for many years a beloved missionary in North China. After receiving his training at Beloit College and at Yale and Union Seminaries, he went to China in 1908. He is now located in Peking, where he is Dean and Professor in the College of Arts and Sciences of Peking Union university. Just now he is organizing a Department of Chinese in Columbia university and will have charge of it during a somewhat extended furlough.

Rev. Richards, minister of the church, says that of all the missionaries in attendance at the American Board meeting in Evanston during the last week Lucius Porter is the man he has most wanted to have Winnetkans hear, and he has been negotiating for his presence since the meeting of September. Mr. Porter is personally acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Reynolds, the missionaries of this church in China and will bring a message from them.

ATTRACTIVE HOMES IN THE BUILDING PERMITS

Total estimated costs of buildings for which permits were issued last week at the Winnetka Village hall exceeds $61,000, according to the records in the office of Erwin Dames, superintendent of public works.

The largest item on the list is the two-story brick house which W. C. Buttner is going to build at 316 Sunset road at a cost of $19,500. A permit for a $15,000 two-story brick veneer residence was given to E. P. Connor. The site of this dwelling will be 549 Cedar.

Two permits were granted to Gus Lindahl to construct two-story frame houses at 913 and 921 Greenwood avenue. Each of these houses will cost $8,000. A permit for a $7,000 residence was issued to William C. Klingens, 372 Hawthorne lane. D. L. Jennings obtained permission to alter his residence at 1249 Asbury avenue.

Permits for the construction of private garages were issued to T. J. Kelly, 1076 Ash street; E. J. Nichols, 334 Elder Lane; W. C. Buttner, 316 Sunset road; C. T. Moon, 1386 Asbury avenue; Gus Wood, 981 Vine street; M. Cherry, 1082 Spruce street, and to W. Coolidge, 484 Provident avenue.

IRVING O'DELL HEADS WINNETKA LEGION POST

Irving O'Dell has been named commander of the Winnetka Post, No. 10, of the American Legion for the ensuing year. Other officers of the post elected at a recent meeting were: Lloyd Hollister, vice commander; Grinnell Wylie, adjutant; George McKinney, finance officer; Ray Orwig, sergeant at arms; Daniel Noe, assistant adjutant.

At its meeting Tuesday evening of this week, the Winnetka Post voted unanimously in favor of the proposed state bonus for veterans of the World war.

It was announced at the meeting that Reed Landis, American Ace, would be the guest of honor at the Winnetka Post Armistice Night dinner at the Northfield Inn, and would be called upon for a talk. Plans for the forthcoming celebration were discussed at length.

Fifteen members of the Post volunteered to serve as "police" at the annual Hallowe'en party given at Community House for the children of Winnetka Tuesday, October 31.

Officers elected at a recent meeting are to be formally installed at the Armistice Night dinner.
