

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES - ITEMS OF PERSONAL MENTION

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Albert H. Wales, at 385 Ridge avenue, was the scene of a very attractive wedding last Saturday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Virginia Wales, became the bride of George Bushnell of Evanston, son of Mrs. H. M. Bushnell of Lincoln, Neb. The service was read by candlelight at five o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. Norman Hutton of St. Chrysostom's church, Chicago.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white satin embroidered with small pearls. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a band of pearls, and there was a stiff Spanish frill, comb effect, of real lace, at the back of the head. She carried a shower of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Her only attendant, her sister, Mrs. Richard Cutler, as matron of honor, wore a gown of blue-gray satin and lace, and carried a large bouquet of shell pink sweet peas. Mr. John Bushnell served his brother as best man.

One end of the living room was beautifully embanked with palms and ferns semi circle-like, and at either end of the circle were large tower baskets filled with yellow and white chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Cathedral candles were placed on each side of the kneeling altar and there were large baskets of flowers decorating the rest of the room. In the dining room, where the wedding supper was served, the decorations were carried out in pink and white, using the pink roses and small white chrysanthemums, and small models of doves in both colors.

Out-of-town guests included the groom's mother, Mrs. H. M. Bushnell, and brother, Mr. John Bushnell, of Lincoln, Neb., and another brother, Herbert Bushnell, of Omaha.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Eunice Weissenberg, as maid of honor, and Miss Genevieve Martin, cousin of the groom, and Miss Harriot Vopicka, both former classmates of the bride, as bridesmaids, wore a gown of white chiffon velvet trimmed with pearl ornaments, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The attendants wore frocks of autumn coloring, the maids of honor's being a canna shade of crepe romaine, and the bridesmaids, the new golden brown shade. They carried large arm bouquets of the colored chrysanthemums, to match their dresses.

Mr. James Martin served his brother as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Samuel Martin, Edward Coughlin, James Egan and Jerome Milady.

The marriage ceremony was read by the Reverend Father Netstraeter, who also officiated at the marriage of the bride's parents and grandparents on her maternal side. A reception for one hundred and sixty guests was held at the Weissenberg home, 965 Elm street, during the evening.
