

Sugar Plum Tree of Story Book Land To Be At Petticoat Lane

NO more tempting array of sugar plums ever danced before children's eyes than those that are to hang from "The Sugar-Plum Tree" at the big four-college benefit, Petticoat Lane, which is to be held at the Evanston Country Club on November 10 and 11. The real Sugar-Plum Tree of Eugene Field's poem will be the first thing to burst on the sight at the entrance to the quaint English lane, and from the old apple woman who is to sit with her wares at the little green gate under the tree, to the ginger-bread dogs and chocolate cats in their queer antics, there will be nothing lacking to make the candy booth an entrancing bit of story book land.

Kate Greenaway girls from the popular book of nursery rhymes will offer delicious sweets concocted from old English receipts in addition to the best American candies. Two little vendors, Mary Cook and Betty Kingsley of Evanston, dressed in checked red, green and white to represent lollypops, will delight the children with their luscious wares, and tarlatan animal bags filled with hard candies. Clever conceits in the way of dinner-card favors and nut baskets, and attractively decorated tin boxes for holiday use will please and tempt the buyer.

The booth will be under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Ralph Renwick of Hubbard Woods and her assistants, Mesdames Davroe E. Getman, Paul Welch, Arthur Littlefield, James P. Fleming and Edward S. Main of Winnetka; Mrs. Sidney Ball of Kenilworth; Mrs. Wm. D. Mann of Highland Park; and Mesdames Charles P. Davis, Alfred C. Tyler, Guy Scudder and Harry M. Ayres of Evanston.

"Bon Voyage" Fete for Washburne Tour Party

A combination party was given at the Skokie school Friday evening. It was a combination party because it combined a Halloween celebration with a farewell party for Superintendent and Mrs. C. W. Washburne, Miss Mabel Vogel and Miss Florence Brett, who are leaving Monday, October 30, for an extensive study of educational conditions in Europe.

During the festivities a purse of gold was presented to the superintendent and his wife as a little remembrance from their associates.

After the games had been played and the dancing was over everybody turned to and enjoyed the cider, apples and doughnuts that had been provided for the occasion.

Quick Work of Firemen Saves Car From Flames

The careless use of matches is said to have been the cause of a fire which damaged a Buick automobile last Saturday.

The car was on Winnetka avenue west of the Indian Hill station when its owner, James Willett, Chicago, discovered the blaze and notified the Winnetka fire department. Immediate action on the part of Chief Hounen's men prevented extensive damage.

Constitute New Masonic Lodge Tuesday, Nov. 7

Tuesday, November 7, will be unforgettable in the minds of Winnetka Masons. That day marks the formal constitution of the Winnetka Masonic lodge together with the presentation of the charter. The ceremonies will be held in the evening at the Skokie school.

In connection with the constituting ceremonies the lodge officers will be installed and there will be a special entertainment program provided by high grade talent.

Constituting ceremonies will be conducted by the Grand Lodge, and visitors from many neighboring lodges are expected for the event. Miles Whitney is general chairman, in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. E. Sawyer Smith is entertaining the North Shore alumnae of Chi Omega sorority informally at luncheon on Friday of this week at her home, 696 Ash street, Winnetka.

Before Winter Comes

ARE you going to drive your car throughout the winter? If so, give a thought to your battery NOW. If your battery is in good shape and you take reasonable care of it, zero weather is not going to bother you. But you can save yourself a lot of woe by letting us make sure in advance that your battery is ready for the winter strain.

If it's fit, we'll say so; if it's not fit, we'll make it so. This advice is sound. We trust you will act on it NOW—before winter comes.

If you are going to lay up your car this winter, ask us about our battery storage plan.
