

RED CROSS OUTLINES 'ROLL CALL' PLANS

House to House Canvass
Sunday, Nov. 12

"The suburban Division was unequalled for hearty response and good work for the Red Cross last year, and it is coming forward with the same enthusiasm this year," said Mrs. L. L. Funk.

Mrs. Frank is the director of the Sixth Annual Membership Roll Call of the Chicago Chapter, American Red Cross. Her volunteer service to this organization began with the Eastland disaster in 1915; was followed by relief work for the families of soldiers on the Mexican border; and for the families of soldiers during the entire World War. Last year, she was chairman of the Suburban Division which excelled all other divisions of the Chicago Chapter.

Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day is the time set for the Roll Call, but the Chicago Chapter plans to do the whole thing by a house to house canvass Sunday, November 12. Many workers for a few hours instead of few workers for many hours, will put the thing over.

Mrs. James A. Patten is the chairman of the Suburban division, as well as Evanston. The following chairmen have already started work:

Dr. Thomas E. Roberts, Oak Park
Mrs. Frank Eaton, Maywood
Mrs. Dorothy L. Harding, Area
Mrs. Clinton S. Beach, Ravinia, assisted by
Mrs. Frederic D. Porter, Ravinia
Mrs. Henry A. Sellen, Berwyn
Mrs. Gertrude W. Hoag, La Grange
Mrs. Charles T. Atkinson, Lake Forest
Mrs. Alfred E. Hamill, Lake Forest

WOMAN CANDIDATE HAS STRONG SUPPORT HERE

Mrs. Jean P. Washburn, of Evanston, candidate for County Commissioner from the country towns, is being warmly supported by many Independents and Republicans without regard to partisan politics.

A Non-Partisan committee has been formed in Evanston, and other suburban towns to support her at the coming November election. Mrs. Washburn's committee among others comprises the following:

Mrs. John Early, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Green, Miss Katherine Green, from Winnetka.

Judge and Mrs. Sidney E. Eastman, Mr. W. W. Wheelock, of Kenilworth. Scores of leaders are listed on the Evanston committee supporting Mrs. Washburn as well as large representations from Oak Park and other west suburbs.
