

SOLDIER BONUS WINS; WET BALLOT, AS WELL

The Soldiers' Bonus and the so-called "Beer ballot" carried by comfortable majorities in Tuesday's voting here on the small ballots. The bonus proposition brought out 1823 favorable votes and found 1523 ballots in opposition. Light Wines and Beer fared slightly better, the vote in twenty of twenty-three precincts showing 1806 for and 1192 against the proposition. Gross Point led the township on the side of Light Wines and Beer, registering approximately 10 to 1 in favor of the Public Policy ballot. The count in the single Gross Point precinct was: Yes, 389, No, 31.

Kenilworth Happenings

The marriage of Mr. Andrew M. Taylor, son of Mrs. W. J. Taylor, 310 Cumnor road, and Miss Juanita Gandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Gandy, of Culver, Ind., took place on Thursday, November 9, at 4 o'clock, in the Episcopal church in South Bend, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will be at home after December 1, at 844 Forest avenue, South Bend, Ind. Mrs. W. J. Taylor and Miss Helen Taylor sister of the bridegroom, left Wednesday to attend the wedding and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart S. Marshall in South Bend, formerly of Kenilworth.

The Petticoat Lane bazaar given by the Four colleges, Vassar, Wellesley, Wells and Goucher, will take place Friday and Saturday of this week at the Evanston Country club. The alumnae of these colleges have been working for "Petticoat Lane" all summer and it is expected to be a great success. Many quaint costumes will be worn and the club house will be artistically and gayly decorated. Mrs. L. M. Allen, Mrs. Sidney Ball, and Miss Irwin are among the Kenilworth women who have been enthusiastic workers for the bazaar.

Mr. Alexander F. Reichmann, 322 Kenilworth avenue, is in New York on a business trip.

Approximately fifty-five members of the Art and Literature department of the Neighbors, of which Mrs. P. B. Eckhart is chairman, went on a gallery tour at the Art Institute, on Thursday, November 10, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Pauline Palmer, a very well known artist in the city, conducted the tour through the All-American Exhibit of Painting. Afterward the ladies had luncheon at the Woman's College Club.

The Russian Literature class met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rufus B. Stolp, 336 Warwick road. Purgeniev's books were discussed.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at a regular meeting of the Council of the Village of Winnetka held on the fifth day of September, 1922, the following ordinance was passed by three-fourths of the members of the said Council:

The Council of the Village of Winnetka do ordain:

SECTION 1. That the following described real estate, to-wit:

The South Ninety-nine (99) feet of Lot Four (4) in the re-subdivision of Blocks One (1), Two (2), Three (3), and Four (4), and the vacated street known as Bellevue Place, lying between Blocks One (1) and Two (2) Four (4) on the west, in Lake Shore subdivision of Lot One (1) in Nicholas Simon and Others' Subdivision of part of the Southeast fractional 1/4 of Section on the east and Blocks Three (3) and Section Twenty-one (21) and of fractional Southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Forty-two (42) North, Range Thirteen (13) East of the Third Principal Meridian, in Cook County, Illinois, being vacant and unimproved and at no time used by the said Village for any purpose, is no longer necessary, appropriate or required for the use of the said Village or profitable to said Village, nor is its longer retention by said Village for the best interests of the said Village, and that the said real estate be sold pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided.

SECTION 2. That a copy of this ordinance, together with a proposal to sell the said real estate, shall be published in the Winnetka Weekly Talk, a newspaper published regularly in said Village on Saturday of each week, for a period of not less than sixty days after the taking effect of this ordinance, which proposal to sell shall state that all bids received for the said real estate will be considered and opened at a regular meeting of the Council of said Village on, to-wit: November 21st, 1922.

SECTION 3. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Council and posting.

and that bids for the purchase of said property will be received by the Village Clerk, up to eight (8) o'clock P. M. November 21st, 1922, which bids will be duly opened and considered at the meeting of the said Council to be held November 21st, 1922, in the Village Hall of the Village of Winnetka, at eight (8) o'clock P. M. All bids sent to the said Village Clerk shall be marked on the outside "Bid for real estate." The said Council reserves the right, pursuant to statute, to reject by majority vote any or all bids. The said real estate will be conveyed by the Village of Winnetka by proper and sufficient deed to the bidder whose bid shall be accepted, and who shall duly pay or secure the purchase price therefor to the Village of Winnetka.

The A-O-Ki-Ya Camp Fire Girls, under the leadership of Mrs. A. D. Herrmann, held a Hallowe'en dinner at the home of Eleanor Buckman. The dinner was prepared by Pauline Bilow, Eleanor Buckman, Eleanor Thayer, and Louise Voight. Last Saturday nine of the girls spent an enjoyable morning on a tour of inspection of the La Salle hotel. They were taken through the kitchen and storerooms and were given a chance to see how the work in the office was taken care of. It is the ambition of the group to visit the Tribune Plant, the waterworks cribs and some large packing house in the city before the end of the year.

Mrs. Burt A. Crowe, 234 Raleigh road, who has been visiting relatives in Owasso and Flint, Mich., returned home on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bennett, 856 Sheridan road, Winnetka, have gone to Dallas, Tex., for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Foresman, 515 Essex road, returned home on Monday from a week's stay in New York. Miss Patty Foresman, who is attending St. Mary's School in New Jersey, spent four days with her parents in New York.

Miss Mary Williams, of Winnetka, gave a miscellaneous shower and bridge at her home on Saturday in honor of Miss Alice C'ague, whose marriage to Mr. Charles S. McCoy, of Wilmette, took place on Wednesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis D. Slater of Evanston, are going to make their home in Boston. Mr. Slater has been made manager of the new branch of the U. S. Industrial Alcohol company.
