Winter Season Gay With Our Debutantes Making Bows to Society

DAY by day, 1922 buds are being ushered into the social world, until Chicago and the north shore's social calendar is pretty well filled up until after the first of the year. Many other larger activities, charity balls and the opera, likewise fill in every precious moment.

On Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Gardner (Caroline deWindt) are giving an at home at their apartment, 456 Surf street, Chicago. Saturday, November 25, Miss Betty Copeland, daughter of the Lowell Copelands, will make her debut at a dance given by Mrs. Edwin Larned Ryerson, at the Ambassador. Wednesday, Thanksgiving Eve, the first Winnetka Assembly dance will take place at the Winnetka Woman's club. Thanksgiving night, the Albert S. Gardners are giving a dance for Miss Alice deWindt, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heylinger A. deWindt, at the Congress. They will also entertain at dinner preceding the dance. Tuesday, December 5, is the "Bal Fantastique" for the benefit of the Illinois Children's Home, at the Trianon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Mordock will give a reception and tea dance at the Ambassador on December 23, to introduce their daughter, Miss Katherine Mordock. Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. N. Langdon Hoyt will introduce Miss Josephine Hoyt at a tea dance at their residence here. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coffin will introduce their daughter, Miss Lois Coffin, at a tea on the afternoon of December 29, and on New Year's Day, Miss Rachel Foster will make her bow to society at a dance given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster. The Fosters will give a dinner dance at the Ambassador for their daughter on January 2.

On November 13, the regular meeting of the MacDowell club was held in the home of Mrs. Robert Kingery, 809 Pine street. The afternoon was devoted to the compositions of Chicago and north shore composers and a very delightful paper written and read by Mrs. Charles Byron. Following is the program presented:

- "May, the Maid" ..... John Alden Carpenter
- "Love Came in at the Door One Day" ..... Richard Edwyn
- "Song" ..... Wallie Zimmerman
- "Consecration" ..... Charles Manney

A group of songs were rendered delightfully by Mrs. Heber Smith. The accompanists for the afternoon were: Mrs. Arthur Dean, Mrs. C. B. Ewart and Mrs. E. Harris.

Benno Moiseiwitsch, the distinguished young Russian pianist, will give the second concert of Miss Mary Marshall's North Shore Concert course in the Evanston's Woman's club auditorium Monday evening, November 27, at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. Moiseiwitsch is a resident of London, where he is a general favorite. He married recently Daisy Kennedy, an Austrian violinist of note, who often appears in joint recitals with him.

Upon his first appearance in New York the young Russian was acclaimed as the true successor of the great Paderewski, because of the poetry and imagination of his playing. He will appear in recital in every large city of the United States this season and with all the principal orchestras in the country.

Miss Alice deWindt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heylinger A. deWindt of Sheridan road, is leaving on Thursday of next week for the east, where she will attend the Yale-Harvard football game. Miss deWindt will return the following Wednesday in order to attend the Thanksgiving ball, which is to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Garden, at the Congress in her honor.

The Current Events club will meet on Friday, November 24, in the home of Mrs. Theodore Coyne, 597 Provident avenue. The club meetings are open to anyone interested in current events.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Weinstock and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Deily of Evansville, Ind.

Miss Vivian A. Ratcliffe of 804 Lincoln avenue took part in one of the chorus dances in the annual show, given by the junior class at Mount Holyoke college, last evening, and called "A Good Girl."

The show was this year marked by a departure from the musical fantasies given in previous years. The note of the modern runs through the plot and setting, to which the principal character, Alicia, reacts as the voice of satire.

The play takes up the story of a young girl, Alicia, who, goaded on by a consciousness of her own unpopularity and by the example of her clever sister, Janice, adopts a speedy line and a fast delivery. The first act finds Alicia well on the way to resolve to start on the "great business of being popular." The second act finds Alicia well on the way to usurping her sister's place as the most popular girl in the crowd, but she has encountered unforeseen circumstances in the infatuation for her of a young dandy, whom she likes, but hardly as a lover. The dilemma is solved in the third act when she decides to put their relationship on the solid basis of friendship. The sub-plot is taken up with the romance of Janice and her somewhat indifferent lover, Charley. When Charley finally proposes in the third act, Janice's tension and the suspense of the audience are released.

The dancing contributes to the general effect of the modern. The quick rhythms of the lyrics make it impossible to resist executing clever dance steps. An especially lovely interpretive dance occurs in the second act, when Alicia, dancing in the moonlit path, frightens the credulous guests into thinking that she is a ghost. An unusual little dance is the golf ball dance in the third act, effectively carried out by the bouncing movements of the dance.

Another interesting program was given by members of the North Shore Musical Society on Tuesday, November 7. The subject for the afternoon being English music, held the members' keen interest because so many of our well-known English composers' music was given. The program was carefully prepared by each and every one who took part and preceding it an instructive reading of the subject for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Dorothy W. Macauley, director. The hostesses were Mrs. Marjorie Sherman and Mrs. Winifred Seaver. Participants were as follows: Piano, Mrs. Eloise Bedlan, Mrs. Frances Taylor, Mrs. Erna Akely and Miss Pauline Pettibone; voice, Mrs. Dorothy Cordts, Mrs. Marjorie Sherman, Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Fuermann; violin, Miss Hughes; vocal trio, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Seaver and Miss Dorothy Rae.

The Windsor Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, are holding a Mother Goose fair at the Glencoe Masonic hall, on Saturday, December 2. The doors will be opened at one o'clock, and the fair formally opened by the president of the village, Mr. F. W. Penfield, at the hour of two. Proceeds will go to the British Old People's Home.

Enjoyment is promised both the youngsters and the grown-ups, for there is to be a Punch and Judy show, moving pictures, and each booth is to take on the appearance of a Mother Goose character.

Donations of money and merchandise may be sent to Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster, 816 Bluff street, regent of the Windsor chapter.

Much enthusiasm is being spent these days on preparations for the Annual Charity Ball of the Sunbeam League of Chicago, which takes place at the La Salle hotel, on the evening of Friday, December 1. The dancing will be enlivened by the renditions of Husk O'Hare and his super-orchestra, will be suspended temporarily at midnight, while many of our theater favorites perform. Many other unusual and rare features have been arranged, and this year's affair promises to be even more successful than in years gone by. Tickets are in the hands of Miss Phoebe Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Hoffman, 1231 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, a member of the committee in charge.

The Elm Street circle meeting will be held Tuesday, November 21, in the home of Mrs. Robert McGlashan, 1104 Oak street. Mrs. Myron Harshaw will be the assisting hostess. As this is the last meeting before Thanksgiving there will be some business to transact and every member is urged to be present.

Miss Katherine Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eager Lloyd, is spending the winter with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Theobald of Baltimore, Md. Miss Lloyd will make her debut there at the first Bachelors' Cotillion.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden, Jr., 1151 Oakley avenue, have gone east for the football games. Mrs. Hubbard Carpenter is visiting with her young granddaughter, Rosalie Sturges Boyden, during their absence.

Dr. George F. Sutherland, who is a child specialist associated with Dr. Grulee, will hold a child welfare clinic regularly every other Wednesday beginning November 8, at the Gross Point Health Center, Ridge avenue, near Wilmette avenue, from 2:30 to 4:30. Miss Queen who assists Dr. Sutherland can be reached by the phone any day at the Health Center, Wilmette 2402 between 12 and 1 o'clock. The next clinic will be November 22.

A most unique program has been arranged by the Music committee for its next program on Thursday afternoon, November 23, at 3 o'clock, known as an Ampico recital, which includes numbers by Eugene Dressler, tenor; Carleton Kaumeyer, violinist, and Edward Weissert, cellist. This meeting is open to all club members, and guests are invited upon payment of the usual guest fee. A large attendance is urged.

The Oak Street circle, at its October meeting, changed its circle day to the fourth Tuesday of the month, instead of the third, consequently there will be no meeting until November 28. The hostess will be announced later.

The tea which was to have been given by Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter on Friday, November 24, for Miss Betty Copeland, has been postponed until Saturday, December 16, owing to Mrs. Carpenter's departure for the west.

On Saturday evening, November 25, Miss Betty Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Copeland, 180 Linden avenue, will make her debut at a dance given by Mrs. Edward Larned Ryerson, at the Ambassador.

The William J. Fishers, formerly of 394 Chestnut street, have moved into their new home at 388 Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Herrmann attended the Wisconsin-Illini football game at Madison last Saturday.

Mr. Charles W. Coffin of Boston is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Francis Payne Mason, 567 Ash street.
