Remember It's Xmas Seal Time; Be Sure to Use 'Em

This is Christmas shopping time. Oh, yes, the farseeing Xmas shopper is not waiting until the "eleventh hour," but has already started with the annual jaunts to the shops.

In this connection it is of utmost importance that every shopper bear in mind that this is also the season for the purchase of Red Cross Christmas Seals, funds from the purchase of which go into the coffers of the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute, which supports, largely, the Grosse Pointe Health center right in our own neighborhood.

Late next week the Christmas seals will be on sale at the drug stores, banks, and in the schools.

The thing to remember is, that, whenever you dispatch a Christmas parcel, be sure to have it marked with Red Cross Christmas Seals. It will make your Christmas giving all the more pleasant to know that you are helping those who need help indeed. Get into the genuine holiday spirit.
