Week's Building Permits A permit authorizing the construction of a bungalow worth $28,000, and another authorizing a $25,000 home swelled the total value of building permits granted last week to $69,000. The permit for the construction of the $28,000 bungalow was issued to F. N. Pearson, and official of the Consumers Company. The house will be built at 877 Auburn avenue. The Studell Engineering company are the architects.

J. M. Dickinson, Jr., received the permit for the $25,000 dwelling. The house will be built at 1100 Pelham road. It will be a brick structure designed by Russell Walcott, 8 East Huron street, Chicago.

Another large permit was issued to Alex Weisz, who will erect a $15,000 brick veneer residence at 179 Fuller lane.

Permits for the building of private garages were issued to George Wolfs, 511 Cedar street, and to P. E. Connor, 594 Cedar street, John Cecil Black, 1174 North avenue, was authorized to make an addition to his garage.

Town Improvements Make

Work for Public Service Co. An unusually large number of municipalities in the territory of the Public Service Company have enacted improvement ordinances in the last two or three months. Many of them provide for sewers and paving thus requiring excavating streets.

The Electric and Gas Departments of the Company have had more or less extra work, sometimes involving the removal of poles and gas mains chanical shape. $575. Ideal car for as a consequence of these improvements. Where it has been necessary Wills Sainte Claire and Auburn Dealers. to move gas pipes they have usually been shifted to the parkway with the LTG3-1tc consent of the municipal authorities.
