

PHOTODRAMAS

AT NEIGHBORING THEATRES

HOWARD THEATRE

Shirley starts the Howard program off "on the right foot" Sunday, December 3, in her latest production "Shirley of the Circus," said to be that oldtime favorite's most scintillating cinema achievement. There better program that should attract are to be other features of the Sabbath program that should attract packed houses through the course of the day

Noteworthy Howard attractions will be December with Theodore Roberts beginning things Monday, December 4, with "The Old Homestead." This film will continue at the Howard on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday bills are featured by the showing of "Oliver Twist," with little Jackie Coogan in the stellar role.

Future attractions at the Howard, dates for which have not been announced, include "Rich Men's Wives," featuring House Peters; "Slim Shoulders," with Irene Castle, and "The Kentucky Derby," starring Reginald Denny of "Leather Pushers" fame

ADELPHI THEATRE

"Oliver Twist," with Jackie Coogan in the title role will begin next week's program at the Adelphi, Clark street at Estes, Rogers Park. The film that is generally considered the child actor's best effort, shows on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, December 3, 4 and 5. Reginald Denny in "The Kentucky Derby" will provide the thrills at the Adelphi on December 6 and 7.

A double feature program begins on Friday, December 8, and will be a weekly feature on Adelphi Friday bills. December 8 finds Shirley Mason and Tom Mix in the stellar roles, the former in "Youth Must Have Love," and the handsome exponent of virility in "Just Tony."

Saturday, December 9, finds Herbert Rawlinson featured on the Adelphi bill in "One Wonderful Night." Sunday, December 10, brings James Kirkwood in "Ebb Tide."

HOYBURN THEATRE

Irene Castle holds first place at the Hoyburn Theatre Monday and Tuesday, December 4 and 5, in her portrayal of "Slim Shoulders," a film that affords her ample opportunity to give vent to her dancing proclivities. It is her latest production.

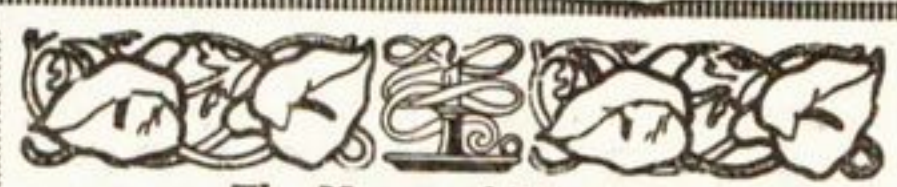

Constance Talmadge comes for a three-day stay beginning Wednesday, December 6, in a classic screen portrayal of "East is West," made famous on the spoken stage. This is a film of which it has been said: "Its stage success has been eclipsed by screen splendor" There are eight reels of wonderful drama, radiant romance suffused with Oriental spell. Constance makes Ming Toy an unforgettable figure of smiles and tears.

May Allison and Robert Ellis are billed for Saturday, December 9, in "The Woman Who Fooled Herself." There will also be the weekly episode of "Days of Buffalo Bill."

NEW THEATRE NAMED

The Strand Theater which was recently purchased by Clyde E. Elliott will be named the "New Evanston" it was announced this week. After submitting a list of the names suggested for the new theater to a committee selected from the merchants of Evanston and the students of Northwestern University it was unanimously voted to name the new theater after the city. After the name was selected Mr. Elliott declared he would use every effort in presenting the highest class of entertainment, consisting of first run exclusive picture, orchestra and specialties which will make the "New Evanston" Theatre to Evanston what the "Chicago" Theatre is to Chicago.
