EVANSTON
"The Christmas Store Supreme"

Merchandise Certificates

Why not give merchandise certificates if you find it difficult to choose something for a friend. Then the recipient can choose the things he wants most.

Why Worry About What to Give? Our Christmas Displays Will Happily Suggest One Thing After Another for Gift Giving.

You can do your Christmas shopping quickly and enjoy it thoroughly when you shop at "The Christmas Store Supreme."

Christmas displays are so arranged that you can readily find just the things you want for friends and relatives. Christmas wares from many climes are here for your selection. You'll not only enjoy seeing all the choice things, but you'll enjoy buying them as well, so inexpensively are they priced.

The Gift Shop with its treasures from near and far will hold you spell-bound.

Tempting gifts, the sort that folks like to receive, and the sort you feel tempted to keep for yourself after you have bought them. These are the kind you'll find in the Gift Shop. Here you will find suggestions that will fill many of your gift needs, just a few of which are listed below:

Bring the Little Folks to See SANTA CLAUS

He's just "dying" to see them. You know, he's never happy unless he is with the children. The more the merrier.

So bring the children to the Third Floor tomorrow. They will have the time of their young lives talking with Santa, telling him what they would like to have, asking him to be sure to bring this, that, and the other thing.

The Electric City Will Interest Young and Old Alike

Here is an attraction no one should miss seeing. It's a Miniature City, electrically operated in every detail. Here are the things in motion at one time; three trains running, automobiles speeding, ships sailing, wind mills and water wheels turning, soldiers walking. In addition all streets are electric lighted as well as scores of houses and buildings.

Come to the store tomorrow and see the Electric City. You'll be fascinated with it—fascinated to the extent that you could watch it for hours with keen interest.
