Invitations for Holiday Parties Flood the Mails

THE Winnetka Woman's Club will entertain for the young people of college and high school age on Thursday afternoon, December 28. Sons and daughters of club members are invited to the club on that day at three o'clock. A Christmas play, entitled "A Christmas Fantasy" will be given by a group of high school students, after which there will be informal dancing. The music will be furnished by the Kippy orchestra. Ushers for the entertainment will include Misses Marjory Janney, Mary Ott, Fredericka Walling, Marcell Venuema, Virginia Gordon, Sara Chickering, Cathryn Hamilton, Elizabeth Boyden, Blanche Spiegel and Susan Burlingham.

North Shore alumnae of Kappa Gamma sorority are completing arrangements for a Spanish ball to be given on the evening of Saturday, December 30, at the Evanston Country club, to swell their building fund. The ball room will be transformed into a bit of old Madrid, and assistants in Spanish costumes and dances by Senorita Conchita and Senor Buis will be features of the evening. It is the only formal subscription dance of the year. Provision for bridge in the card room, will be made, in addition to the dancing upstairs.

Patronesses for the ball are Mrs. C. W. Pank, Mrs. Lewis G. Blessing, Mrs. Frank B. Dyche, Mrs. John Harding, Mrs. Dennis Gent, Mrs. Gordon Bull, Mrs. F. W. McDonald, Mrs. W. E. Burch, Mrs. Griswold A. Price and Mrs. Edward C. Grice.

Miss Charlotte McDonald and Miss Jean Calhoun who are in charge of the dancing will be assisted by Miss Dorothy Burch, Miss Ethel Flentye, Miss Norma Lawlor, Miss Mildred Bodach, Miss Margaret George and Miss Virginia Davis. Miss Helen Dyche, who is chairman of the arrangements for bridge, will be assisted by Miss Mary Howe.

A fourth performance of "Peg o' My Heart," the production by the North Shore players which delighted "capacity Houses" in Winnetka and in St. Luke's parish house last week, was given last evening at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium of the Evanston Woman's club. The proceeds will go to the building fund of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, whose removal from Chicago to the new Evanston campus at Ridge avenue and Sheridan road will take place shortly.

Patrons and patronesses for the performance were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Patten, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Buffington, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berry Ennis, Mr. and Mrs. A. Starr Best, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison B. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. A French composers' program was given December 5 at the home of Mrs. Orval Simpson, 932 North avenue, Winnetka, by the North Shore Musical society of Wilmette. Mrs. Starbuck of Winnetka was the assistant hostess. After a short reading of French composers, Mrs. Copthorne, Mrs. Akely, Mrs. Seaver, Miss Ethel Flentye, Miss Dirk, Miss Pauline Pettibone and Mrs. Simpson gave a very enjoyable program, after which dainty refreshments were served.

The Winnetka Assembly Christmas party will be given at the Woman's Club Saturday evening, December 23. Quite a number of dinner parties have been arranged, the largest of which will take place at the Indian Hill club. The Assemblies have been a source of great pleasure to many Winnetka people and from all indications the Christmas party will be a continued pleasure.

If you can spare an hour or two, Wednesday morning, December 20, to help finish some sewing for destitute children in time for Christmas, come at ten o'clock to the meeting of the Woman's Society of the Congregational church at Community house. There will be a social hour and a reading by Mrs. John R. Fletcher. Bring a tiny toy to slip in the pocket of one of the garments.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, 978 Oak street, announce the marriage of their brother, Harry A. Smith, to Gertrude S. Kain of 1514 Jonquil terrace, Rogers Park, Thanksgiving eve., at Owensboro, Kentucky, the ceremony being performed by Father Maloney of St. Steven's Catholic church of that city.

Mrs. James Keddie gave a most interesting talk at the home of Mrs. Douglas Taylor, to the Pine Street Circle, on her recent trip to Scotland, England and Paris. Mrs. Keddie illustrated her talk with pictures and souvenirs gathered at the various points of interest that she has visited.

The Hawthorne Lane Circle will meet Tuesday, December 19, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Fritz Wagner, 561 Hawthorne lane, with Mrs. Elmer J. Baker, assistant hostess. A full attendance is desired as matters of especial interest and importance will be discussed.
