'PEG O' MY HEART' PROVES A WINNER

North Shore Players to Be Congratulated

By Glenn Bruce Judging from the appreciation of the audiences which met the performances, "Peg O' My Heart" last week at Winnetka and Evanston, the North Shore Players have the monopoly of a large place in the hearts of north shore drama lovers.

The audiences were "all for" the production and from the very first act the players realized this and were encouraged tremendously. To present a play as familiar as this comedy of youth by J. Hartley Manners takes courage, but last week's actors under the efficient direction of Jessie Royce Landis did it so skillfully that the audiences soon knew it wasn't the plot, but the North Shore Players interpretations that so fascinated.

Perhaps it was that Peg's Irish simplicity was refreshing; maybe, after all, it was just Elizabeth Duffy herself. But, from the very moment that she made her first courtsey, the audience in its entirety was nodding smiles of approval back.

Miss Fanelma Schulmeyer was, throughout the play, an attractive and very interesting Ethel Chichester, W. Harlan Ware's portrayal of Alaric Chichester was unusually excellent character work, as was Earl Fox's in a minor role, the butler. The most convincing actor was Benn F. Carswell as Mr. Brent, while Miss Neola Northum in her interpretation of Mrs. Chichester is to be commended for her consistency. Miss Klein and Giles Weise were satisfactory in less important roles.

Joe Driscoll was very pleasing as the hero, and the audience was thoroughly satisfied that Peg's future happiness was insured when he took her into his hands.

The lighting effects were of superior grade. Especially successful was the storm presentation.

The proceeds from the Winnetka performance went to the American Legion.

BISHOP ANDERSON IS SUNDAY CLUB SPEAKER

A Capella Choir Gives Music Program

Bishop Charles P. Anderson of the Chicago Diocese of the Episcopal church, will be the speaker at the Winnetka Sunday Evening club, on the evening of December 17.

Bishop Anderson is one of the best known clergymen in the United States and is particularly well known on the north shore where he appears frequently, both in connection with his diocesan duties and as a public speaker.

While Sunday evening's topic has not been announced, Bishop Anderson is certain to have a message of vital interest and importance to Sunday Evening club members and friends.

Augmenting the address of the evening will be a special program of music by the A Cappella Choir of Northwestern university, under direction of Peter C. Lutkin. This splendid musical organization is too well known on the north shore to require further comment.

Sunday's program is certain to be one of the most valuable services of the 1922-23 Sunday Evening club season and a large attendance is anticipated by the officers of the club.

Much Light is Lost by Using Unwashed Globes

A pan of soap-suds is one of the most effective means yet discovered for increasing electric illumination. Electric lamps often get dirty, especially in the kitchen, where there is grease and steam.

Tests made recently disclosed that four classes of dirt often collect on electric light globes. They are dust and dry dirt, oily and greasy dirt, acid fumes deposits and spots of paint, tar and varnish.

After the globes have been washed in soap and water their average light increase was shown to be as follows: Dust and dry dirt globes, 78.4 per cent.

Oily dirt grease and acid fumes globes, 14 per cent. Paint, varnish and tar spatted globes, 67.2 per cent.

Falls Two Feet and Is Rendered Unconscious

Phyllis Dally, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Dally, 1031 Oak street, was rendered unconscious one day early this week when she fell from the "monkey bars" at the Horace Mann school playgrounds. The fall was a distance of two feet and the child was quickly revived at the school medical station.
