

NEW CONG'L CHURCH FAVORED BY MEMBERS

Sentiment at Annual Meeting Unanimous for New Edifice Here

Construction of a new church edifice for the Winnetka Congregational church was favored at the annual meeting recently of the members of the church.

It was the sense of the meeting that a remodeling program would not answer the needs of the parish, in view of its rapid development along with the steady growth of the village and the increased community service such growth would demand in the not far distant future.

Inquiry concerning the recent meeting of the Winnetka Congregational church, where action was taken relative to a new church building, this week brought the following information from one who was present:

Large Attendance
"The meeting was notable in size, spirit and accomplishment. Although it was a business meeting of the church, a number who are not members were present in response to the repeated invitation given on the church bulletin and through the columns of the Talk to all friends of the church.

"The spirit was that of a group of people who feel that a great institution of service is in their keeping and are earnestly seeking ways of fullest usefulness. The Church Council laid before the church all the facts that have been most influential in their thinking upon the problem and suggested forms that forward movements, if taken at all, might well assume. The fullest and most candid discussion was invited all along the way.

Remodeling Not Favored

It is notable that under these conditions all the action taken was unanimous. It was unanimously voted that the present building is inadequate for a growing church in a
