

MINSTREL-COMEDY COMING JAN. 29-30

Indian Hill Improvement Association Sponsors Big Variety Event

JOE BREN, DIRECTOR

Real Stars to Appear in Cast

The Indian Hill Improvement association have made arrangements to stage a Minstrel-Vaudeville-Musical Comedy production at the New Trier High school auditorium on the nights of January 29 and 30. This show will be under the direction of Mr. Joe Bren, who has handled other successful entertainments in Winnetka in the past.

The importance of the show, which is to be called "The Jollies of 1923," lies in the fact that it will depart to a vast extent from the regulation amateur performances and will be staged in true professional style with magnificent scenic settings and clever costume creations. There will be a variety of entertainment covering the many different scenes—a Minstrel show, several comedy sketches, song and dance numbers of the revue type, Grand Opera travesties, and other novelties. The Executive committee of the Indian Hill Improvement association has given much time and thought to this affair and has made every arrangement whereby this should be one of the biggest offerings of its kind ever presented in the village. Two of the members were formerly connected with Richard Carle and other musical comedy artists, and both have been in the musical comedy field for a great number of years, and out of their extensive experience will contribute greatly toward the success of the event. It has been learned that there are many others in this community who have had wide experience in the theatrical line who will participate. The first rehearsal was held Tuesday evening, December 26, at the New Trier High

COVER VITAL TOPICS IN LECTURE SERIES

Keen interest is manifest in the series of lectures to be given at the Winnetka Woman's club under the auspices of the North Shore Sinai Congregation in co-operation with the Education department of the Winnetka Woman's club.

The series, beginning January 31 and continuing over a period of four weeks, is scheduled as follows:

January 31—Mrs. Margaret Fanger on "The Meaning of Birth Control."

February 7—Dr. A. A. Brill on "What Is Psycho-Analysis?"

February 14—Mrs. Forbes Robertson Hale on "Flappers—Girls of Today and Women of Tomorrow."

February 20—Prof. George L. Scherger on "Our Country and the Changing World—American and the Nations."

Information relative to the lecture series may be secured from Mrs. I. M. Portis, of Winnetka.

Special Installation of Masonic Lodge Chaplain

Dr. J. W. F. Davies, associate pastor of the Winnetka Congregational church, will be formally installed as chaplain of the Winnetka Masonic lodge Tuesday evening, January 9.

Special installation ceremonies for Dr. Davies are necessitated by the fact that he was unable, because of illness, to attend the formal installation ceremonies of the lodge held on December 19.

Officers for the new year are: Thomas N. Wheatley, master; William F. Kentnor, senior warden; W. F. Groene, junior warden; A. T. Weinstock, treasurer; Andrew F. Batey, secretary; J. W. F. Davies, chaplain; Sidney G. Wellbeloved, senior deacon; C. F. Fitch, junior deacon; Earl Weinstock, senior steward; John F. Nelson, junior steward; M. H. Cadenhead, marshal; Carl Niemann, tyler.

Death Takes Little Girl in Fred Hull Household

The sympathy of this community was deeply stirred on Christmas Day by the death of little Margaret Hull, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hull, 933 Ash st.

The little girl made a brave fight against a singularly violent attack of diphtheria. The funeral was conducted by Rev. James A. Richards Tuesday at Memorial Park.

Where's Dan?

"Where's Dan?"
"Gone up North."
"Where to?"
"Big Bay de Noquet."
"Thanks! Where is it?"
"Up above Escanaba. At the north end of Green Bay in northern Michigan."
"What's he doing up there?"
"He's a scaler in a lumber camp."
"What's a 'scaler'? Peels off the scales?"
"Not quite. He figures out the timber in a log and stamps it with the owner's mark. I got that from the dictionary."
"Sounds like it. But say, I thought Dan was in school."
"Not now. He lost his appetite for French and Physics. Couldn't study."
"That's too bad."
"No, I don't call it 'bad'. It's a fact, neither bad nor good; just a fact."
"All right, but, anyway, you put him to work, didn't you?"
"No, he put himself. I helped him get a job."
"How does he like it?"
"He says it's fine!" Three big meals a day! Breakfast and supper in the mess-house, and dinner at noon out in the woods."
"They tell me they have to get up pretty early in those camps."
"Yes. Sometimes I think I'd like to then, he goes to bed at eight. Has Sunday to himself."
"Sounds kinda nice doesn't it?"
Yes About quarter after five. But, look in on Dan. But it's four hundred miles from Winnetka, and I've grown, maybe, overfond of warm water and a good bed."
"Same here, gets pretty cold up there. Thirty below, sometimes. By the way, remember me to Dan when you write."
"Say, write to him yourself. Address it to Daniel Kohlsaat, Nahma, Michigan, Camp 14."

PNEUMONIA IS FATAL TO FRANKLIN RUDOLPH

Winnetkans were shocked to hear of the death Wednesday evening, December 27, of Franklin Rudolph, Chicago business leader and one of the most prominent citizens of this village.

Mr. Rudolph passed away early Wednesday evening, a victim of pneumonia.

He suffered with an attack of la grippe about ten days ago and his condition was not considered serious when he suddenly took a turn for the worse, the ailment developing into fatal pneumonia.

Funeral services will be held at the residence, 745 Sheridan road, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Rudolph, who was vice president of the American Can company, was born in Chicago in 1858. He entered the business world at an early age and built up a large business as a manufacturer of metal containers, which was absorbed in 1901 by the American Can company, of which he became a director. Three years later he was made vice president.

Mr. Rudolph is survived by his widow and three children.

North Shore Gas Company Preferred Stock Dividend

At a meeting of the Board of Directors December 18, 1922, a dividend at the rate of 7 per cent on the preferred stock of the company was declared, payable in quarterly installments, as follows: One Dollar Seventy-five cents ($1.75) per share payable January 1, 1923, April 1, 1923, July 1, 1923, and October 1, 1923, to stockholders of record at the close of business on the 20th day of the month next preceding each dividend date.
