

"KING OF GAZOOK"

Dr. D. W. Poff, handsome and staid member of the Indian Hill community, will appear as per above in one of his character roles in the forthcoming Minstrel Musical Revue to be staged at the New Trier High school auditorium Monday and Tuesday nights, January 29 and 30.

But, as Al Jolson would say, "You ain't heard nothing yet."

The entertainment is given under auspices of the Indian Hill Improvement association and the talent will be taken from among the residents of south Winnetka—real talent, too, what we mean.

Turn a new paint-brush bristles up, open, pour in a spoonful of good varnish and keep in that position until dry. You will find that the bristles will never shed in painting.

N. U.-Indiana Gage Game Postponed Until Feb. 20.

The basketball game with the University of Indiana which was scheduled by Northwestern university at Patten gym for January 20 has been postponed one month, according to an announcement yesterday.

The new date is February 20 and students, alumni and friends of both the Purple and Indiana "U" are requested to hold the new date in mind.

The game had been extensively circularized and it is a matter of regret that it had to be postponed. Therefore the next "home game" which Northwestern plays will be against Ohio State at Patten gym the night of January 29. This should be one of the hardest-fought basketball tussels of the season, as the two teams will be quite evenly matched.
