

SARG'S PUPPETS TO BE SEEN JANUARY 24

North Shore to View "Don Quixote" Performance

Winnetka and Kenilworth residents are expected to attend in numbers the performances of Tony Sarg's Marionettes in the presentation of "Don Quixote" at the Winnetka Skokie School Wednesday, January 24. The showing of the puppets on the north shore will follow performances at the Playhouse, Chicago, under direction of Rachel Busey Kinsolving. The performances at the Skokie School will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8:15 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Sarg's puppets, developed from the miniature Italian street shows of the middle ages, have attracted wide attention among leading artists and dramatists in New York and in other parts of the country during the past few years. Each puppet is worked by a set of strings manipulated by a trained puppeteer who also speaks the character's lines. The stage settings are reduced to a scale with the two-foot dummies, so that a few moments after the curtain rises they appear to be of normal size.

The mechanism of the puppets is so complete that in one of "Don Quixote's" most amusing scenes a singer's breast rises and falls as she warbles a Spanish love song to the accompaniment of a guitar played by her cavalier. Rosinante, Don Quixote's erratic rawbone nag, is especially adapted to accurate representation in miniature, and the battle between two mounted knights with lances drawn is one of the outstanding scenes of the play. Tiny lambs dancing in Don Quixote's vision of knighthood, and the exhibit of a miniature marionette show within the show also won favorable comment from critics in the east upon its various presentations there.

Mr. Sarg, who is well known as a cartoonist and illustrator, has devoted several years to the manufacture of his marionettes, their stage presentation and the training of men and woman in his school for puppeteers in New York city. Several of the little figures used in "Don Quixote" are relics of the mediaeval street shows in Italy, brought to this country a number of years ago and rescued by Mr. Sarg from the New York customs house where they had been held for non-payment of duty.

Railway Helps Students Pay Portion of Tuition Expense

Northwestern students who find it necessary to work their way through school, are finding the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Electric railway prepared to assist them in defraying at least a portion of their expense.

Several students of the university are finding lucrative employment as ticket agents on the North Shore line. Most of the smaller stations of the road are manned in two shifts and Northwestern students are to be found at North Chicago, Lake Forest, Linden avenue, Waukegan, Wilmette and Central street, Evanston.

Poetry Lovers of America Enjoy Supper, Discussion

Poetry Lovers of America, an organization claiming a strong representation on the north shore, enjoyed a supper and evening of discussion at the Auditorium hotel, Chicago, Friday evening, January 13. Guests of honor were: Sam Putnam, Prof. Wallace Bruce Amsbary, Miss Harriet Monroe, Prof. David Robertson, Vibe K. Spicer, John M. Stahl.

Invest at Home

"The field the farthest away always looks the greenest." This old quotation especially applies to investments. People are continually investing their money in questionable securities of companies that are practically unknown to them, when there are other purchases in their own home town which are very much better. Not only is the safety usually greater with local investments, but the opportunity for profit and return is often fully as good.
