HOYBURN THEATRE

Marion Davies in "When Knighthood was in Flower," will be the big attraction at the Hoyburn Theatre, Davis street, Evanston, beginning Monday, January 22, and continuing through Wednesday, January 24. This world-famous romance, depicted in a million dollar setting of dazzling splendor, is characterized as "enchanting with beauty." It is considered by many critics the masterpiece of the screen.

Harrison Ford and Helen Jerome Eddy will provide entertainment at the Hoyburn on Thursday and Friday, January 25 and 26 in the interesting drama, "When Love Comes."

Saturday morning, January 27, will be the occasion of another of the popular Children's morning shows at the Hoyburn. "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" will be the attraction for the youngsters at two showings—9:30 and 11 a. m.

On Saturday afternoon and evening Hoyburn patrons will see Herbert Rawlinson in the picturization of Richard Harding Davis' great novel, "The Scarlet Car."

ADELPHI THEATRE

"When Knighthood was in Flower," starring beautiful Marion Davies in the role of the madcap princess, will be seen at the Adelphi for three days beginning Sunday, January 21. Lyn Harding, the English actor-manager, well known for his impersonations of King Henry VIII, was brought over from London to portray the character, and he has done it with remarkable effectiveness.

"Brothers Under the Skin," will show at the Adelphi on Wednesday and Thursday, January 24 and 25.

"When Love Comes," starring Helen Jerome Eddy and Harrison Ford, will be the Adelphi attraction on Sunday, January 27. The story aspires to answer the question, "Should a Girl Propose?"

Thomas Meighan, in "Manslaughter," will be seen at the Adelphi on Monday, January 28.

HOWARD THEATRE

Charles Jones in "The Footlights"

Ranger" will head the Howard special bill on Sunday, January 21.

Beginning Monday, January 22, and continuing through Thursday, January 25, Thomas Meighan will entertain Howard fans with "Manslaughter," said to be his greatest screen achievement.

Howard patrons are informed that Tom Mix will arrive at that theater on Tuesday, February 6, to remain two days with his latest smashing success, "Romance Land."

"When Knighthood was in Flower" played to tremendous crowds at the Howard this week. There were five big days of the thrilling drama of romance and intrigue.

Music continues to play an important part in Howard programs. The Howard Orchestra Supreme never fails to give a splendid account of itself both in its "playing to the pictures," and its specialties.

Jottings From New Trier High

In the Assembly Friday Mr. Barnett of Glencoe made a very enthusiastic talk on "Americanism." Afterwards he announced the winners of the Annual Barnett prize for the Civics essay. The first prize was awarded to Dwight Chapman of Wilmette for his essay, "How Shall We Solve the Industrial Riddle," and the second to Hildur Ouse of Wilmette for her essay, "Education of the Immigrant." Honorable mention was given to Robert Kortez of Glencoe for his discussion, "Some Aspects of the Labor Situation."

Both Dwight Chapman and Robert Kortez were on New Trier's debating team which won three out of four debates on the labor question last year.

Commenting on Dwight Chapman's essay, Professor Arthur Nethercot of Northwestern said that it was as masterly as any production of a college senior. Another judge has asked for a copy of it to send to the "New Republic" for publication.

The new semester begins Monday, February 5, and any new students wishing to register should report for registration during the week previous from January 29 to February 2.

Last Wednesday the Senior Swimming Team won their meet with Evanston 44 to 14 and the Juniors 41 to 9.

Saturday, January 20, both teams meet Lane in Chicago. Next week on Saturday, January 26, at 2 o'clock the teams have their meet with Oak Park in Lake New Trier.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Braun of 931 Oak street have as their guest for several weeks Mrs. Braun's sister, Mrs. L. E. Blum and sister, Miss Florence Blum, of San Francisco, Cal. The Brauns just recently moved into their new home.
