Need Clothing Right Now For Sufferers In Greece

"We don't care whether the tapes are on the inside, or the outside, or whether the seams are wide or narrow," said Miss Nell F. Parkinson, Chicago Chapter, American Red Cross, 58 E. Washington street. "All we want to do is to get warm garments to naked children in the shortest time possible. Some of our 28 shipments have reached Athens, already, and even the gunny sacks in which they were packed have been cut up for shoes.

Church societies in suburban towns and throughout Chicago are putting aside regular programs in order to help in this emergency. Every hour of sewing given by a woman lessens the suffering of a child who through no fault of its own is freezing to death.
