Musical Evening For Winnetkans February 27th

A concert of unusual merit is to be given the evening of February at Skokie auditorium by a group of talented artists. Allen Spencer, pianist, Louise Winter, soprano and George Smith, baritone, will give a program varied and rich in interest, and one which the Winnetka music lover must ordinarily travel to the city to enjoy.

Mrs. Charles C. McKinney, Mrs. Walter Strong and Mrs. Laird Bell are the committee arranging for this entertainment on behalf of the Woman's Guild of Christ Church. The proceeds will be devoted to the upkeep of the children's work at Point Hope, Alaska—a barren wind-swept town on the North Bering coast, where a population of fishers and sealers need our care and sympathy as they have learned some of the ills of civilization and been exploited by the whaling ships, till now their only contact with the world.

Miss Marian Blatchford has selected a group of girls to act as ushers Tuesday evening, Miss Pauline, Miss Margaret Mercer, Miss Elizabeth McEwen, Miss Barbara Nicholls and Miss Katherine Mordock.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the committee or at the door.

One hundred and sixty-four girls, many of whom are from the North shore, have been chosen to take part in "Mildy's Bandbox," musical review to be given by Northwestern girls under the direction of the Woman's Athletic association at New Trier high school on April 27 and 28.

Marion Drew, senior and member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, is general manager of the review. She is assisted by eleven girls, comprising the executive committee: Helen Schlemen, assistant business manager; Virginia Bull, stage manager; Eleanor Fisher, assistant business manager; Jean Calhoun, poster publicity; Thelma M. Butts, press publicity; Margaret Couffer and Elizabeth Cutler, costumes; Emily Watt, properties; Ethel Flentye, music; and Marion Copper, programs.

Of the cast chosen thirty-six will be ponies, fifty-nine show girls, twenty-one show men, thirty-six specialties or leads, three models, seven character parts, and two leads of the jazz band. The cast is subject to changes.

The cast is composed of many Evanston and North Shore girls. Specialty or lead: Elizabeth Boring, Katherine Bott, Mary Braddock, Geraldine Brode, Evelyn Brown, Miriam Bruno, Margaret Clayton, Marion Copper, Norma Craven, Margaret Bracken, Mary Day, Alexandria Dodd, Louise Ellis, Ethel Flentye, Dorothea Frye, Margaret George, Dorothy Harris, June Harrison, Helene Herman, Helen Houghton, May Johnstone, Norma Lawler, Aileen Lind, Zeta MacDonald, Melba Mathien, Jane McKenna, Elizabeth McMein, Alice Meadows, Adello Mitchell, Louise Nottingham, Martha Oliver, Hildur Ouse, Mary Paynter, Phyllis Schulze, Winifred Smith, and Marion Youngquist.

Show men: Lois Baleke, Gertrude Beck, Margaret Beegle, Dorothy Clayton, Helen Davis, Constance Freeman, Margaret Harding, Elizabeth Heathcote, Louise Heppner, Esther Hess, Isabelle Hinds, Elizabeth Martin, Dorothy Mumford, Geneva Robertson, Dorothy Todd, Sylvia Torpe, Phyllis Trojan, Martha Vance, Madeline Wenger, and Dorothy Yonkers.

Show girls: Sylvia Ames, Jessie Anglin, Ethel Arries, Marion Blessing, Gretia Boyle, Helen Buehler, Virginia Bull, Kathryn Burnett, Emily Carlisle, Marion Case, Margaret Couffer, Opal Daniels, Ruth Dillon, Leora Dingee, Dorothy Duncan, Agnes Durlacher, Eleanor Halloway, Frances Helmkamp, Elizabeth Hilton, Gertrude Hirth, Jean Howell, Mildred Kinney, Alice Kellogg, Ruth Kreutzer, Gertrude MacRae, Grace Madock, Alice Mason, Catherine McCulloch, Dorothy Miller, Adella Mitchell, Sara O'Neal, Dorothy Pearson, Hester Wilhelmina Mueller, Dorothy Olson, Perry, Elizabeth Pope, Lura Jratt, Genevieve Proud, Dorothea Rapp, Lyda Raymond, Katherine Redfean, Ethel Saari, Lila Saari, Helen Schmidt, Idamay Schoonover, Gertrude Schirhardt, Elizabeth Shriver, Frances Smedberg, Dorothy St. Claire, Glenn Sternberg, Dorothy Suddard, Virginia Sullivan, Isabella Taves, Phyllis Tenney, Marion Warnes, Ethel Wellington, Anne White, and Lillian Woodworth.

evieve Sapiro, Louise Shoop, Helen Showalter, Alma Vanderberg, Lucille Wait, Rosamond Ward and Mildred Weber.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Babbitt of Evanston, to Mr. Warren B. Ewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Ewer, 1111 Ashland Ave., Wilmette, will take place this evening, in the Rogers Park Congregational church. The ceremony will be read at eight-thirty o'clock, by Dr. John S. Nichols. A reception will follow at the Evanston hotel. Miss Williams will be attended by her sisters, Mrs. E. M. Gallup of Glencoe, as matron of honor and Miss Gladys Babbitt of Los Angeles, as maid of honor. Mrs. Daniel O. Hubbard of Winnetka, Miss Frances Sweet of Evanston and Miss Margaret Shugrue of Rogers Park will be the bridesmaids, and little Barbara Gallup will be flower girl.

Mr. Wallace Thompson of Chicago, will serve Mr. Ewer as best man and the ushers will be Messrs. John Bettbridge, John Tilton, Julius Collins and E. M. Gallup.

Mr. Ewer and his bride will reside at 7033 Sheridan road, Rogers Park, upon their return from a wedding trip.

There have been many pre-nuptial parties for Miss Williams, among them a dinner bridge given by Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Shugrue, a dinner party given by E. M. Gallup, a luncheon by Miss Margaret Hubbard, a luncheon given by Mrs. Archie McLain of Wilmette, another luncheon given by Miss Frances Sweet, and a luncheon and dinner party given by Mrs. Charles Ewer. The bridal dinner will be given this evening at the Evanston Hotel, by Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt.

Patronesses for the gala farewell concert to be given by Chaliapin on Sunday afternoon, March 4, are Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. Potter Palmer, Mrs. Arthur Meeker, Mrs. William Sherman Hays, Mrs. Ferdinand W. Peck, Mrs. Edward L. Ryerson, Mrs. John Borden, Mrs. Donald Frazer McPherson, Mrs. Lester Armour and Miss Olga Menn. Reservations for the concert, which is the very last to be given by this musician may be obtained at the box office, or through K. C. Raclin, 1431 First National Bank building, Chicago.

The February meeting of the North Shore Musical Society was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Dirks, in Wilmette. An Irish and Scotch program was delightfully given by Miss Eloise Bedlan, Mrs. Cordts, Miss Dorothy Rae, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Akely, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Fuerman. The guests included Mrs. Burton Atwood and Mrs. Arthur Dean of Winnetka, Mrs. Pattison Kline of Wilmette and Mrs. Effie Marine Harvey director of Music at the North Shore hotel, in Evanston. The afternoon was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

Of interest to many Winnetkans is the announcement that comes from Santa Monica, Cal., telling of the celebration by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Poff of Olney, Ill., parents of Dr. Delbert W. Poff, 562 Hawthorne lane, of their golden wedding anniversary on February 6. The party was held at the home of their daughter in Santa Monica. The elderly couple will arrive in Winnetka within the next few weeks to be with Dr. and Mrs. Poff for a visit before their return to their home.

The Inter Nous Matinee club of which Mrs. Harland Fankbender, 848 Foxdale avenue, is president, will be hostesses to the Friends of the Drama at a luncheon in the Picadilly club on next Wednesday, February 28. Later the two organizations will attend a performance of "The Twist." There will be covers for sixty guests at the luncheon, the honor guests being 3 members of "The Twist" cast, Gale Hamilton, Arthur Byron and Miss Ann Andrews.

Mrs. David L. Jennings, 1249 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, was hostess at a Children's Washington party on Thursday afternoon in honor of her small son, the occasion being his third birthday anniversary. Among these who participated in the day's frolic was Shurley Ruth Smith, Betty Wilson, Dorothy Raub, Virginia Sweet, Mary Hammond, Harold Beck, Roy Terry, Dick Swank, Ralph Pritchard, and Charles Dell.

Mrs. Sydney Bartlett, whose signature "Floy Little Bartlett" adorns many compositions dear to the heart of childhood will give a program before the Matheon Club of Oak Park at the home of Mrs. Carl Kinsey on Saturday afternoon Feb. 24. Following the program Mrs. M. H. Leiber will conduct a class in Parliamentary Law Procedure.

Plans are made for the annual party which the Faculty of the Public schools will give Friday evening, March 2, at the Winnetka Woman's club, 8:30 o'clock. This is the third festivity of its kind and the parties have proved so successful in the past three years that it has become quite an institution in Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler, 9 Indian Hill road, had as guests on Wednesday evening of last week, Vicomte and Vicomtesse Jacques de Sibour of London. The vicomtesse formerly was Miss Violet Selfridge. She is the daughter of Mr. Harry Gordon Selfridge of London and the late Mrs. Selfridge, who was Miss Rose Buckingham of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace K. Tenney, 640 Pine street, will sail today for three months of extensive travel in Italy. Mrs. Tenney was the guest of honor at several small farewell functions recently, among them a tea given on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William C. Boyden, 725 Pine street, and a luncheon on Tuesday given by Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt of Sheridan road.

A great deal of enthusiasm has been put into the preparation of the one act play under Mrs. Laird Bell's able leadership and many pleasant evenings have been spent making favors for the cotillion which will follow, and it is hoped the usual large number of friends will attend and join in the merry making. The teachers voted to turn the entire proceeds over to the Parent Teacher association.

Dudley Bradstreet left Saturday evening for St. Louis, Mo., where he was married on Monday morning to Mrs. Louise Taylor of Austin, Texas. After their wedding trip they expect to make their home with J. E. Bradstreet at 334 Ridge avenue.

Mrs. F. R. Haviland, 839 Ash street is expected home today from Kansas City, Mo., where she was called by the illness of her mother, who is now recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

In the exhibition of "Artists of Chicago and Vicinity" now at the Art Institute, Wilmette is represented by a painting entitled "From the Shadows into the Sunlight" by Mary L. Bockius.

The next East Elm Street Circle meeting will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Winchell, 552 Elm street at two o'clock. The meeting will be a social affair.

Mr. M. K. Meyer left Thursday, February 15, for Houston, Tex., to visit his daughter, and will later go on to California, where he expects to remain for an indefinite period.

Mrs. Edgar Foster Aiden, 352 Linden avenue, will open her home for a musicale and song fest on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. A delightful program has been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Strotz have returned from the wedding trip to Virginia Hot Springs, and have taken an apartment at 220 E. Walton place, Chicago.

Cecilia Klauke, daughter of Henry Klauke, 1138 Scott avenue, was operated upon for appendicitis Wednesday morning at St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

The Forty Club entertained with a Washington Birthday dinner and dance on Thursday evening at the Winnetka Woman's club.

The Current Topics class will meet at 2:30 Friday, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Eugene Fenchtinger, 947 Oak street.

Mrs. George Bisset, 514 Linden street entertained on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. A. Wood. There were thirty-six guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Porter and Mr. George W. Gordon returned to Winnetka early this week from an extended Panama Canal trip. Mrs. Gordon, stopped over in New York city to spend a few days as the guest of her sister.

Washburne Party Expected Back in Village March 3

Latest reports from Carleton W. Washburne, superintendent of Winnetka public schools, indicate that the Winnetka party of teachers, which went to Europe last fall to study educational conditions there, will return to Winnetka on March 3.

The party, which includes Miss Mable Vogel and Miss Florence Brett, left Havre, France, last Monday. They are expected to land in New York on February 26. The next day Mr. Washburne will speak before the Superintendents' convention of the National Educational association at Cleveland, Ohio.

The entire party will return to Winnetka as soon as the convention is over. The party has travelled in seventeen countries on three continents and have visited schools in nearly all of them.

Local Legion Men Will Hear Address on Russia

Preston Kummier, recently returned from a tour of investigation in Russia, will speak before the Winnetka Post No. 10 of the American Legion, Tuesday evening, February 27.

The local post of the legion is making arrangements for an exhibition of boxing to be held Tuesday, April 3. Tickets for the exhibition are to be given to the members at the Tuesday meeting, according to Grinnell Wylie, post adjutant.
