

DEBUT RECITAL WINS AUDIENCE

Karstrom Delights in First Appearance

On Monday night, February 26, Adele Crenshaw Karstrom, contralto, assisted by Elizabeth Layman Anning pianist, and Leonore Falk Harris, accompanist, gave a recital at the Winnetka Woman's club.

Mrs. Karstrom, for the first time, presented herself to the public in a purely professional capacity and, in spite of the fact that it was a debut, she was well poised and sure of her ground. One did not feel, as is so often the case, that the first number was sacrificed to nervousness. As a foundation for the excellent work Mrs. Karstrom has been doing with Mr. Sacerdote, she possesses a full, rich contralto voice of great power and beauty. Her diction is excellent and she creates atmosphere with her songs. They are all well chosen and the program was a varied one. The second group seemed to find especial favor with the audience and Mrs. Karstrom undoubtedly did her best work in the Rachmaninoff number. The last group held two favorites, "The Gypsy Trail" by Galloway and "As We Part" by Ilgenfritz, which were also most popular with the audience. Mrs. Karstrom responded twice with encores.

Mrs. Harris accompanied Mrs. Karstrom in an absolutely satisfactory manner. She was at all times the accompanist, never a soloist, and her accompaniments were most artistic and a splendid support.

Of Mrs. Anning's playing, only the very finest caning be said. She is an artist pupil of Mr. Clarence Eidam and plays with great technical skill, beauty of tone and an absolute feeling for her art. Her group was most enthusiastically received by the audience, and she responded with an encore.

It is unfortunate that Winnetka does not avail itself of such a musical treat when the opportunity is so close at hand. Those who did not hear this recital are indeed the losers.

Mrs. Peter Blasius, 385 Birch street, is striously ill with influenza.

LAWRENCE M. PICK IS HEART ATTACK VICTIM

Private funeral services were held at the home yesterday for Lawrence Mercer Pick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pick, 445 Sheridan road. Burial was at Rosehill.

Lawrence, extremely popular in younger social circles in the village, passed away suddenly Wednesday, February 28, while at his desk in the offices of Burley and company, dealers in chinaware, at 7 North Wabash avenue, Chicago. Death was caused by heart failure.

The young man, who was 26 years of age, previously had suffered with heart trouble, having been forced to leave the service shortly after he had enlisted in 1917.

He was made assistant manager of Burley and company when his father's firm took that concern over a few years ago.

Lawrence was a student in the Art institute for a short time and had attended the University of Chicago. He was a member of the Northmoor club.

Besides his parents he is survived by his brother, Albert Pick, Jr., and two sisters, Mrs. Archibald Lynne and Miss Dorothy Pick.

Mrs. Joseph Lucchesi Dies At St. Francis Hospital

Mrs. Joseph Lucchesi, of 677 Willow street, died Tuesday February 27, at St. Francis hospital, leaving a new-born infant. Funeral services were held at the Winnetka Congregational church Thursday, at 2 o'clock, and was conducted by Rev. James A. Richards.

Mrs. Lucchesi was formerly Miss Margaret Michaelson. Besides her husband, she is survived by a small daughter, Virginia, an infant daughter, born Sunday, February 25, and three sisters, Helen, Elaine and Ellen Michaelson.

The Bryn Mawr alumnae of Chicago and the north shore are to have an opportunity during the coming days to meet the new president of the college, Marion Edwards Park, who will arrive in the city today to be the guest of Mrs. James Foster Porter in Hubbard Woods. Many affairs have been arranged in President Park's honor. On Saturday at the College Club, there will be a luncheon to which all alumnae are invited, followed by a tea at the Casino in the afternoon.
