Kasten-Ingersoll Nuptials Occur This Evening

THE marriage of Miss Dorothy Kasten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Kasten, of 220 Poplar road, to Mr. Harold B. Ingersoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Ingersoll of Chicago, will take place this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Kenilworth Union church. Dr. William Colledge will perform the ceremony.

Mrs. H. H. Dyar of Cleveland, will attend her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Helen Ruth of Kenilworth, Lucile Curtis of Warren, O., Mary Ann Judson of Chicago, and Ruth Kasten. There will be two little flower girls, Marsalie Biosat of Chicago and Patricia Dyar, a niece of the bride. Mr. Ingersoll will be attended by Mr. Biosat as best man, and the ushers will be Huntington Dyar of Cleveland, Merwin Prindle, Arthur Ogle, Ralph Carney and Edward Wilson of Chicago.

The Winnetka League of Women Voters has selected a committee with Mrs. William G. Hibbard as chairman and Mrs. Walter Fisher as vice-chairman to conduct a symposium on the government of the Village of Winnetka at the Winnetka Woman's club Wednesday, March 28 at 3 o'clock, taking it as a model Village, with its organization, its plans, its achievements and its ideals. The object is to spread enthusiasm concerning the administration of the business of the Village.

This symposium which this committee has in mind will include talks graphically illustrated by charts, given on the following subjects by the following people:

1. Protection, including Fire and Police—given by Mrs. Walter Fisher.
2. Public Works, including street-cleaning, bathing-beaches, etc.—given by Miss Montagriffle.
3. Schools—given by Mrs. James Porter.
4. Libraries—given by Mrs. Edgar Stanton.
5. Track Depression—given by Mrs. William D. McKenzie.
6. Water Filtration—given by Mrs. Emmons Blaine.
7. Taxes and Finances—given by Mrs. William B. Moulton.
8. Health, including quarantines and waste disposal—given by Mrs. Lawrence Howe.
9. The Winnetka Plan, including the Zoning Ordinance and Village Hall—given by Mrs. Raymond E. Durham.
10. Franchises, including telephone, gas, and electric railroad—given by Mrs. Stephen A. Foster.
11. Light—given by Mrs. M. J. Blair.
12. An election chart, showing the names of the candidates and their duties, and general statistics about election—given by Mrs. Frank R. Greene.
13. Parks—given by Mrs. Seward Simons.
14. A general chart showing the relation of all these parts—given by Mr. H. S. Woolhiser.

On Friday afternoon, April 6, Mrs. Wendelin P. Seng, will open her home at 401 Lake avenue, Wilmette for a card party, to be given for the benefit of the Grosse Point Health Center. This is the first time that the public has been asked to assist in raising funds, to carry on the work of the Health Center, which in general is maintained by the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute, and the Grosse Point schools, with some help from the Village of Wilmette and the township. Unsolicited contributions, however, from people who appreciate the value of such Public Health work have made possible enlargement of the infant welfare and nutrition work.

Every other Wednesday from ten to twenty mothers assemble to receive advice upon the care of their babies from a recognized baby specialist. It is to make certain the continuation of this infant welfare work, and of the nutrition classes for older children, throughout another year, that the board is giving this party.

The Oak Street Circle will give its third annual informal dinner party next Wednesday evening, March 28, at 6:30 p. m., at Community House. The various committees, in charge of Mrs. Joseph Winterbotham, have planned a splendid menu, a good program and plenty of music, and promise to make the evening one long to be remembered. It behooves each of the Oak Street Circle women and the male members of their family to plan on spending the evening of March 28, in getting better acquainted with his or her neighbors. Reservations are to be phoned to Mrs. Richard B. Webster, Winnetka 1684, not later than Monday morning, March 26.

A month or so ago, the members of the Ash Street Circle entertained their husbands with a most delightful Valentine party. It was the first evening party given by this newly organized circle, and it proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. Last Friday evening, March 16, these husbands who were so delightfully entertained, reciprocated with a sumptuous dinner at the North Shore hotel, in Evanston, after which the guests all motored back to the Neighborhood room at Community House, to dance or play cards or just enjoy themselves in their own way. Mr. Edwin Thompson and his committee deserve honorable mention.

Children's Easter favors, Easter flowers, Fancy work, Cakes, Pies, Candy and Cookies will be for sale at the Easter Sale to be held at the Christ Church Parish House, Oak and Linden streets, from 10 o'clock until noon on Saturday, March 31, under the auspices of the Woman's Guild and Auxiliary.

Mrs. Ashley Gerhard will be in charge of the cake table; Mrs. George Parker, the Easter favors; Mrs. A. W. Shaw, the fancy work; Mrs. F. D. Fullton, the pies and cookies; Mrs. Joseph Husband, the flowers; and Mrs. Henry Tenney, the Girls' Friendly table.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Winnetka Congregational church school will be held in the Neighborhood room Wednesday morning, March 28, at 10 a. m. Some of the teachers in the school will present their problems, showing in what way the parents may co-operate in order to get the best results. This will be an informal meeting and it is hoped that any who are interested will be able to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cary Norton, 370 Walnut street, are at home this afternoon and evening to their relatives and friends, in celebration of their Fiftieth wedding anniversary. This afternoon, between the hours of three and five o'clock, has been especially reserved for members and friends of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to call, and this evening, Mr. and Mrs. Norton will receive other friends.

The next musical program at the Woman's club will take place Thursday afternoon, March 29, at three o'clock. It is to be an interpretation of the "Snow Maiden", a Russian opera by Rimsky-Korsakoff. Miss Maude Boslaugh will sing arias from the opera and the theme and accompaniments will be played by Beulah Taylor Porter. The lecture will be given by Miss Florence Cathcart.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Whidden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whidden of San Francisco, Cal., to Mr. A. Luther Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Adams, 1044 Elm street, on Thursday, March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Poff of Olney, Ill., who have been living on the western coast for the past ten months, are guests at the home of their son, Dr. Delbert W. Poff, 562 Hawthorn lane, for a fortnight.

The North Shore Dancing club will hold another of its series of parties at the Winnetka Woman's club on Wednesday, March 28.

Miss Margaret Boyden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden, 725 Pine street, will return home March 29, from Bryn Mawr college for the Easter vacation. Miss Rachel Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster, 596 Maple avenue, will come home from Bryn Mawr on that day also.

The Woman's Society of the Congregational church has sent forth an appeal requesting all women of the village to save the wrappers from Kirk's American Family Soap. The Society is sorely in need of more teaspoons. The wrappers may be left at Community House office before April 10.

Mrs. Harvey Brewer, of Winnetka, and Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt, of Glen-coe, were soloists at the recent concert of the Chicago Musician's club of Women, given at Kimball Hall. Mrs. Orcutt played the Second Suite for Organ by Rogers and Mrs. Brewer played the Bruch G Minor Violin Concerto.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Weart spent a day or two last week with their daughter, Mrs. Earle E. Barber, 211 Church road, en route from Magnolia Springs, Ala., where they have been sojourning this winter, to their home in Oconomowoc, Wis.

Mrs. Samuel E. Dean, of Hinsdale, and Mrs. George K. Spencer, 703 Walden road, will be joint hostesses at a formal dancing party to be given at the Winnetka Woman's club on Monday evening, March 26, for their daughters, Miss Helen Dean and Miss Mary Spencer.

Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 468 Ridge avenue, delivered an address on "The Changing World" before a mass meeting at Galva, Ill., on Wednesday of this week, and on the following day, spoke before the Kewanee Woman's club on "Citizenship for Women."

Mrs. Theodore Brown and her daughter, Margaret, 765 Willow street, are leaving early next week for a visit in Philadelphia, and later a visit with Alice Brown, who is a student at Miss Hall's school at Pittsfield, in the Berkshires.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mitchell and three children have returned from the west where they spent the winter with Mrs. Mitchell's family. They will live at 263 Woodlawn until the completion of their new home on Chestnut street.
