

SONG CARNIVAL COMES APRIL 14

Ilse Forster, Lyric "Orphant Annie", at Winnetka School Next Month

TO SING IN COSTUME

Cyrena Van Gordon on the Evening Program

The children's carnival of song to be given at the Skokie school auditorium, Winnetka, Saturday morning, April 14, by Ilse Forster, promises to be a unique event. It is made possible only by the public spirit of the north shore community which has provided such an excellent hall, and by the enthusiasm of the school authorities in the cause of better music.

Miss Forster sings of gingerbread men, Japanese dolls, big brown bears, little boys who chew string, sad old cows, and other subjects dear to the child heart. Those who have heard her speak of her as a lyric "Orphant Annie" or of some delightful Mother Goose character who has stepped out of the pages of a book.

Sings in Costume

Miss Forster has set out to accomplish vocally what the Chicago Symphony orchestra is doing instrumentally in its series of children's concerts.

All her songs are sung in costume. For the Chinese group she wears a ceremonial robe and a pearl head dress worn by a princess of old China. The robe is embroidered with gold on peachblow satin on which the princess' monogram is woven.

She appears again as Daffy Down Dilly, all green and yellow, like a spring flower; again as Dolly Randolph, a Colonial maid; and finally as Raggedy Ann, smile and all.

In the evening Miss Forster will sing several of her groups in costume for the benefit of the grown-ups, introducing "Bunny Rabbits," composed and dedicated to her by Philip Warner, Paviowska's accompanist.

Gives Evening Concert

Cyrena Van Gordon, prima donna of the Chicago Opera company, will be heard in French and English songs, assisted by Harold Ayers, the young American violinist, and Alma Putnam, accompanist. Of Miss Van Gordon it is said that she has a voice like Nordica's, and she has been acclaimed the most beautiful Brunhilde on the operatic stage.

Prizes for $15 and $10 have been offered for the two best posters designed by north shore school children to announce the carnival. Information may be had from Paul T. Gilbert, 112 South Market street, Chicago.

Editorial Decries Added

Burden of Taxes in U. S.

"It is time to call a halt and an about-face on all these free-taxing, easy-spending gentlemen who are so tirelessly increasing old and searching out new sources of taxation," says the Saturday Evening Post, in an editorial. "A progressive program of confiscation is operating in America under the guise of taxation. Increasing burdens are being added year by year to real estate, to productive capital and wages. Slacker wealth alone is escaping, hiding in the tax-exempts provided by these same legislators. Much of this money is wisely spent, much of it is wasted in worse than unnecessary extension of government powers and in foolish paternalistic schemes, and some of it goes up in smoke between jealous and rival departments."

I Would Rather Walk Than Ride!

"Since I discovered Cantilever Shoes, I prefer to walk. You've seen children run just because they were too vigorous and happy to move slowly. Cantilevers brought back to me that joy in walking."

Ordinary shoes, with a rigid strip of steel hidden in the shank, bind the muscles and restrict the movement of the foot so that much of the natural grace and freedom of walking is gone. But the Cantilever Shoe has a flexible shank. It bends WITH the foot. It encourages the free, graceful movement of the foot. It strengthens the arch.

The last is sensible and becoming. It follows the outline of the foot, and so gives plenty of room for the toes. The natural inner sole line permits foot to lie in a healthy position, with the toes pointing comfortably straight ahead. This feature, and the set of the smart, medium heel, encourage correct posture.

For the joy of comfortable walking try a pair of Cantilevers this week.
