At Neighboring Theatres

Howard Theatre

"Lorna Doone," classic in the field of literature, will be the film offering at the Howard theatre on Monday and Tuesday, March 26 and 27.

Wednesday and Thursday, March 28 and 29 finds Clara Kimball Young as the attraction at the Howard in the picturization of the popular drama, "The Woman of Bronze."

Jack Holt shows at the Howard on Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31 in his latest triumph, "Nobody's Money."

Attractions billed for the near future at the Howard include "The Christian," Laurette Taylor in "Peg O' My Heart," Wesley Barry, in "Heroes of the Street," and Tom Mix in "Three Jumps Ahead."

The famous picture, "The Flame of Life," starring Priscilla Dean, shows at the Howard on Sunday, March 25.

Hoyburn Theatre

"Mighty Lak A Rose," characterized as a symphony of life in the high and low places, is booked to open next week's program at the Hoyburn Theatre, Evanston.

A notable cast, including Dorothy Mackaill, James Rennie, Sam Hardy, Helene Montrose, Anders Randolph and the famous Scotch collie "Jean Bronte," is to be seen in this superb production which has been one of the sensations of the current season.

In the musical accompaniment to "Mighty Lak A Rose," one hears the songs that are dear to every heart. The program, it is promised, is one that "you can't forget." The picture will show Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 26, 27 and 28.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 29, 30 and 31 brings "The Kentucky Derby" to the Hoyburn. This picture was adapted from the great stage success, "The Suburban," the cast comprising Reginald Denny, Lillian Rich, Lionel Belmore and Gertrude Astor. The picture is replete with thrills—a storm at sea and the great turf classic. The Kentucky Derby being among the most notable.

The New Evanston

That cross-eyed cavalier, Ben Turpin, will be the drawing card at the New Evanston Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week. The vehicle is "The Shriek of Araby." An added feature for those days will be Will Rogers' latest picture, "The Ropin' Fool." Beginning Monday, March 26, Mary

Pickford will be at the New Evanston in her overwhelmingly popular success, the revised and modernized version of "Tess of the Storm Country," characterized by critics as "the world's most perfect picture."

Specialties and excellent music by the New Evanston Ensemble and organ feature every program.

All the "movie" actors might emulate Mr. and Mrs. Valentino and get married twice. It might be harder to get a divorce after a double matrimonial dose.

John Bowers says, "A smile will get you anywhere in this world." Maybe so, John, but we'd like to see it get you past a restaurant cashier.

A burro that understands only Chinese appears in "What a Wife Learned," at the Howard this week. He was owned for a long time by an Oriental family and recognizes a laundry check quicker than a feed bag.

Mary Pickford is said to be the best little "saver" in the motion picture business. Mary is credited with being worth $1,500,000.

Norma Talmadge, who appeared at the Hoyburn this week in "The Voice From the Minaret," is some little business woman. She owns half of "The Music Box Revue," a play having a long run in New York city.

Charles Chaplin is said to entertain ideas of attempting serious roles later on. Charlie may find that a moustache and a pair of funny looking shoes are worth more than real gray matter.

Theodore Roberts, the well known screen star is making a vaudeville tour.

MAIN STREET IN MOVIES
The picturization of Sinclair Lewis' novel, "Main Street," has been completed at the Warner Brothers studios under the direction of Harry Beaumont. Florence Vidor, plays the role of Carol Milford, and Monte Blue, portrays the part of Dr. Will Kennicott.

Theda Bara, long absent from the screen star, is making a vaudeville "vamp" picture in which she will not be quite so heartless as of yore.

ORIENTAL RUGS

The difference is saved over and over again in service—and the more you look at them; the more you see in them to enjoy.

Our greatest new Spring importations—selected piece by piece by our own agents in the rug marts of Persia and the Near East—afford values and opportunities for selection seldom seen in the Chicago market.

Let us show you the possibilities of a few small Oriental Rugs as against one large domestic rug. We are sure you will appreciate the difference from an artistic standpoint and you will actually save money.

We will be glad to open an account for you if it will be more convenient.
