

KENILWORTH MOURNS
H. A. KASTEN DEATH

"The passing of Herman A. Kasten on Saturday, March 24, is of deep concern to all who were his friends and associates in the earlier history of Kenilworth, the village which he loved so dearly," reads a communication to The Lake Shore News. "Mr. Kasten cooperated with Mr. George Maher and Mr. George Keehn and many others in carrying out the ideals which Mr. Joseph Sears had for Kenilworth's development, in founding a true Village Beautiful. He was an influential spirit in starting Assembly hall, having in mind that the community ideals were distinctly worth while. "Kenilworth will ever hold Mr. Kasten's name in loving memory, for all he did for its beautiful growth, and all those who knew him loved his generous, unselfish helpfulness. While Mr. Kasten's death seems very sudden, it was preceded by a year of great concern and ill health. The end came at the Evanston hospital following an operation that was performed.

"Mr. Kasten is survived by his widow and three daughters, Miss Ruth Kasten, now of Oberlin college; Mrs. Harold Ingersoll of Evanston, Mrs. Huntington Dyar, of Cleveland, and two grandchildren, Patricia Dyar and Huntington Dyar, Jr."

Mr. Kasten, who resided at 220 Poplar street, Winnetka, during the past year, was the head of H. A. Kasten and company, printers and engravers of Chicago. He was for many years vice president and general manager of the retail store of A. C. McClurg and company.
