"Jollies" Cast To Be Honor Guests At Indian Hill Party

INDIAN Hill Improvement Association will hold its annual entertainment and social evening at the Winnetka Woman's club on Monday evening, April 9, at 8:15 o'clock. This is expected to be the largest meeting of the year, as the guests of honor will be the members of the cast in the recent minstrel show, "The Jollies of 1923". There will be a program of music and special entertainment features. Dancing will follow the program, the music for which is to be furnished by the well recommended Van's orchestra of Chicago. There will be a brief business meeting, but the major portion of the evening will be devoted to gaiety.

One of the reasons for transferring the meeting place to the Woman's club for this event, is that the committee is expecting a very large attendance, figuratively too large to be accommodated comfortably in New Trier hall.

Thirty of the older boys and councilors who were at Camp Minocqua, Minocqua, Wisconsin, last summer, held their annual reunion and banquet last Saturday evening at the University club, Chicago. The Intermediate and Juniors will hold their reunion at the North Shore hotel, Evanston, next Saturday at a luncheon at twelve o'clock to which fathers of the boys are also invited. There will be a program of toasts, songs and pictures, and the camp paper will be read. There were several Hubbard Woods and Winnetka boys at camp last summer among them Charles Rogers, Bruce Hulbert, Stedman Willard, David Lindsay, Warner H. Robinson, Jr., John Swabacker, Henry Stein, David Rumsey and Montgomery McKinney.

The Garden Club of Winnetka is offering prizes for the best garden planted and cared for by children of the grammar grades. These "little gardens" may be of any shape but should be about four feet long. Medals are to be given to the children who win in the contest and the school having the largest number of successful "little gardens" will receive a beautiful silver cup. Further details will be given later or can be had by communicating with Mrs. Hathaway Watson or Mrs. Ezra Taylor of Winnetka.

The Lincoln Avenue Circle will meet at Community House Thursday, April 12, at one o'clock to finish a consignment of baby garments for the Red Cross. They were almost finished at the March meeting and a full attendance of members is earnestly requested on this date in order to complete the consignment in schedule time.

On Friday of this week, Mrs. Clifford Baugh of 887 Ash street entertained the members of the Friday Bridge Luncheon club at the Library Plaza hotel in honor of Mrs. Clifford Jaedecke.
