Josephine Hoyt Is Betrothed To Valentine A. Ely

Mr. and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, 435 Elm street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Josephine, to Mr. Valentine A. Ely, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Graves Ely, of Morristown, N. J. No date has been set for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt and their daughter have just recently re-opened their residence here, after spending the winter season at Green Cove Springs, Fla.

One of the most interesting and perhaps the smartest affair of the coming week is the card party to be given next Tuesday afternoon, at the Woman's club for the benefit of Mr. Davies' Camp Fund. Practically all of the tickets have been sold, but admission may be gained at the door if you have been unable to procure a ticket. For those who do not care to play cards, a most interesting afternoon has been arranged. Mrs. Anita Willetts Burnham, who recently spent a year in travel through European countries, will give a chalk talk of her European experiences. Mrs. Arthur M. Barrett is chairman of the committee arranging the party, and is being assisted by Mrs. Norman Anderson, Mrs. Ayres Boal, Mrs. Rush Butler, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Arthur Cushman, Mrs. Charles McKinney, Mrs. Marcus Richards, Mrs. Stanley Rogers, Mrs. Leonard Roach, Mrs. Frederick Thomas, Mrs. William Truesdale, Mrs. Ernst von Ammon and Mrs. Harry Street.

On Monday, April 9, the MacDowell Musical club of Winnetka held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. E. Kartsrom, 345 Elder lane. Preceding the program of Brahms music, Mrs. Charles L. Byron read a paper reviewing the life of this composer.

On Friday evening, April 27, the Drama Study class of the Winnetka Woman's club will present "The Truth," a delightful three act comedy by Clyde Fitch. A glance at the cast gives assurance of a good performance. Mrs. Preston Boyden will play "Becky" and Mr. Spaulding Coffin has the part of "Warden." They will be ably assisted by Mrs. Robert Butz, Mrs. Ashley Gerhard, Mrs. Albert Potter, Mr. Godfrey Atkin, Mr. Charles Eastman and Mr. Ernst von Ammon. Mrs. Frederick Dickson has charge of the play and Miss Olive Grover will be stage manager.

The play will be given one evening only and will be followed by dancing. Tickets will be on sale at the annual meeting of the club and at Adams Pharmacy after April 20.

The Little Garden club held its regular monthly meeting April 6 at the home of Mrs. Paul Wagner, in Evanston. Very nearly a full attendance of its membership gathered to hear Mr. Wagstaff of C. D. Wagstaff and Company, give a talk on "Shrubs, their planting, general care and pruning." A lilac bush was planted and used as a demonstration of proper methods of pruning. The topic for general discussion was "The Preparation of Soil and Use of Fertilizers." Mrs. Cooke, president of the club led the discussion, which included experiences of various members.

The Garden club of Winnetka wishes to remind the public of the Spring Flower show to be held at the Broadway Armory, April 16 to 22. As the National Farm and Garden association is the beneficiary Monday, the opening day, the Garden clubs of the North Shore hope to have a large attendance on that day.

A May Market will be held under the auspices of the Garden Club of Winnetka on the Village Green, all day Saturday, May 26, where plants of all descriptions will be sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton L. Paterson, of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to William W. White, son of Mrs. James White, of Wilmette. The engagement was made known on Friday of last week at a cozy of the Alpha Phi sorority, of which Miss Paterson is a member. Mr. White was graduated from the University of Illinois in 1919 and is a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

One hundred or more members have enrolled in the "Theta" book shop, recently opened for the benefit of the building fund of the Kappa Alpha sorority of Northwestern university. Several of the local alumnae of the sorority are devoting a great deal of their time to the promotion and library work of the book shop in addition to the assistance of the boosters who have taken out membership. The present aim of the sorority is 1,500 members to join the book shop.

The senior ball in the Northwestern university gymnasium last Friday evening was the last formal affair of the college year and one of the most successful dances for several seasons. James Paterson, president of the senior class and captain of the football team, with his partner, Miss Mary Barthell, led the grand march opening the affair, Miss Marjorie Garvey, chairman of the social committee and her partner, Alfred Steele, led the left wing. Miss Dorothy Yonkers, Miss Clara Gage, and Edward Yonkers were among the guests.

The elaborate decorations created an Egyptian atmosphere, a huge tent covering most of the room with a pyramid surrounded by palms in each and a number of life size camels standing about. A dancer in Egyptian costume appeared at midnight as a special feature of the evening.
