

The Man Who Can Smile

"The man who can smile is the man worth while", it is said. And usually you find he is the man with a substantial Bank Account who knows not the meaning of the word "worry". So why shouldn't he smile?

It is that feeling of security as regards the future that brings contentment and happiness. And you'll always be smiling if you open a Savings Account with us. We'll help along by paying 3 per cent interest. May we expect an early call from you?
