We don't know how true it is; but someone who was standing by told us that D. W. Griffith, directing a scene for "The White Rose," said to his leading lady while they were rehearsing:

"Well, since Photoplay says I have been doing the same thing over and over for years, we'll have to think up a different way to do it this time."

An Honest Man's

the noblest work of God, they tell us. To hear many people talk he's about the rarest thing.

To us, who see a lot of things as we drive around, day and night, there seems little need for such remarks. She's a pretty good world.

When you want to move around on it, just call a Black & White Cab. You'll find an honest man in the driver's seat!
